They say that there could be messages or codes, like a signature, hidden in the non-coding parts of DNA (the non-biological part), and that the original humans left us a type of patterned message for us.

Furthermore, in They Live when Roddy Piper goes in to the church for the first time, the camera pans on all the materials needed to make the glasses, right? What types of liquids were those that they showed?

The glasses themselves are referred to as Hoffmann lenses, after Albert Hoffman presumably. Their design looked reminiscent to Ray Bans, the old school types, but otherwise there wasn't too much that was distinguishable about them. I paused on many different frames when they showed the glasses. I just wish they would show the lenses in more detail...

Going back to the study I showed you real quick, something else that I was pondering about was LUCA (Last universal common ancestor), the "oldest specimen" in which ALL organisms tie its roots back to via DNA. So what was this specimen?

Also, I just want to note that Carl Sagan, Crick (from Watson and Crick), and Haldane (Haldane effect guy with CO2), all believe in this theory of yours. It is officially called panspermia and it has been my obsession for the past few weeks, as They Live.

But yeah man I hate that you were banned lol I would check your tripcode on 4plebs everyday to see if you had anything new to say on these topics

But the genomes on this life form that were found were found to be similar to almost all organisms on Earth, thus why the theory of evolution came to fruition. As for RNA/DNA and proteins, RNA and DNA have always been around with life, and it is my belief that the original humans had knowledge on how to create life by adding certain combinations together. However, "modern" DNA and proteins are post-transitionally modified up the ass so much we are not very similar to LUCA anymore. If there is to be a "message" or signature encoded by the original humans about how our origins are, it would indeed be found in the genetic code of some old ass organism. BUT, our non-coding parts of our DNA still are similar to LUCA in subtle ways, which gets you thinking...

Why would you say research it when you know dozens of interested individuals will immediately lose interest instead of just gifting this seemingly important knowledge to us?

After having watched They Live, I looked into more on John Carpenter's background and saw that a lot of his movies deal with predictive programming like Escape from NY or Escape from LA, but he also has done a good amount of horror as well, such as Halloween. Is Carpenter a Satanist, or in a secret society of some sort that makes him privy to information that he shows in his movies?

They Live is based on a short story called Eight O Clock in the Morning by Ray Faraday Nelson its basically the movie in a few paragraphs. I also looked into Nelson as well and saw that he had connections to Phillip K Dick, some dude that was spoke about similar theories such as NWO, altered consciousness etc. Is it worth it to look in to any of these people? What I am wondering is if there is any sort of clues in their backgrounds or dealings that would lead them to make such films/writings.

Here is the thing bro, you have to understand "prophecy" is really a meaningless therm in this conversation as all religious texts contain true information from far more ancient knowledge First of all this will be very difficult as I had to write an entire book to describe just the role the Jews play in it, and would need to write two more to explain the rest of it. I spent as much as time and energy researching all of this as I did to get a degree in computer science perhaps more. I will try to condense it as much as possible and only include the most important aspects. There is a sect of people that are occultists that belong to an ancient religion, called the mystery religions. I can't say how old this religion is exactly because this information is carefully guarded by the "keepers" but it is far older than what the current belief of the age of the dawn of civilization is. This "religion" consists of ancient knowledge of celestial patterns, mathematics, geometry and symbology. These people have knowledge that is the root of most knowledge of every civilization on earth that is written in their "holy" texts. This information is coded so only the "Illuminated" can understand it. If you have ever read the Da Vinci Code, Angels and Demons etc, then you know exactly what I am talking about. I am going to skip a lot here to get to the point. The bearers of this ancient knowledge built the pyramids. The Jews claim in the Old Testament they built the pyramids as Egyptian slaves. This is false of course, there is no evidence what so ever to support this, it is not entirely false however. This occult religion which the Free Masons also belong to along with numerous other ones around the world, the Jews also possess a lot of. Not your ordinary everyday Jewish person mind you but the occultist ones running things, so in a very loose sense some "Jews" did build the pyramids, only they weren't slaves they were the architects. You have to understand religion is the opiate of the masses. The leaders of every religion and organization around the world no matter what they claim all belong to the same religion (except Buddhists, though they do posses this knowledge as well), they are all Luciferian occultists, Free Masons.

The Jews are just a tool they use (the religion not the race), who are an entire race of useful idiots for the most part. I don't mean this in an insulting way, simply in the Marxist way as described in the Communist Manifesto, they are the biggest tools because their race and religion are pretty much one and the same, but they equally use Muslims and Christians. They convince the Jews they are working towards Talmudic/Zohar goals, and the Muslims they are working towards the global Caliphate, and the Christians toward the Rapture, but they aren't, not really, they simply pit these groups against each other. There are Jews and Goy alike, Muslims, Catholics, every race, every religion everywhere that belong to this "religion" and conspiracy, and the people at the top running the show all really belong to this one religion. They just have told the Jews this to organize them to work towards these people's real goal, which I won't even tell you because you would never believe it, research it yourself, I will just tell you these are some deranged psychopaths. Now to be clear even the Free Masons never started out as an evil group, in fact they were the bearers throughout humanity of knowledge and science. They were usurped however by evil people in the last 1700's, these people calling themselves Jews that aren't Jews by race or religion. Again this is all incredibly complex. Long story short they have this knowledge of these celestial events that coded into the bible in the book of revelations describing true cataclysmic events that have occurred numerous times in the past. How many? I don't know, it could be in the 100's of even 1000's only they possibly know, or they may not even know, but they know of them occurring at least twice before or they couldn't have built the pyramids to the exact specifications that they did.

They know this event is coming and they have used the prophecies in the Bible to manipulate people into believing this is God doing this and it is divine prophecy so Christian nations won't fight them thinking it is divine prophecy. The most powerful, intelligent, free and well armed nations in the world are Western Christian ones, they must neutralize us to take over everything after the "tribulations" and "rapture", they will orchestrate. Now that it is one possible interpretation, or an equally plausible one at this point to me amazingly having never been Christian is that the Bible is right, and this has all been some grand deception by Satan to trick more logically minded individuals searching for truth into believing it is men doing this when it is in fact his work. I will let you decide. However as I said before 33 and 9/23 are two very important numbers in free masonry, 9/23 is 33 days after the eclipse, the pyramids wrote this date literally in stone, the prophecies from revelation have been fulfilled. I am part of a team of investigators that has been tracking them if you are interested just ask I will tell you the ones that have been fulfilled. We aren't just trying to fit these together under an "interpretation" either they are not ambiguous, there is no mistaking them. Many of them are in the threads I gave links to. I will give you one specific example. Now I have never in my life heard of such a story of a woman feeling in the woods for a month, if you want to think this is all some grand coincidence...well you know what I know you will see none of any of this has been a coincidence. It is all connected and has been orchestrated for a long time. How long, I am not sure I am still doing research to get through all the lies and coded information. All I can say is,

I am not 100% sure this could even have been accomplished by men, I am still working this out, there are a few variables I need to verify to determine just how long this has been setup this way, there are a few possible scenarios, all of them equally astonishing. This is being done by an ancient culture far far older than anything we believe ever existed, it was orchestrated by some alien force, or all being orchestrated by a divine creator. But there is no question what so ever it is one of these three and this can be proven conclusively.

So I have some questions for you now that I've rewatched They Live:

1) Are the scenes where they gave the two actors real glasses the ones where they're walking around Hollywood? The "spaced out" look was very organic. Only other scene that looked even possibly real was the first time they were tried on by Roddy Piper.

2) I saw that the "colors" used seem to be red, blue and yellow applied to clear lenses. Where can I go to research the application process more? If I go read up on Hoffman lenses will I be able to learn if these "colors" are specific chemicals, dyes etc?

3) For any curious anons, see pic related, Piper was tweeting this a few times a couple years before he died.

[The image features a large, seated Buddha statue in the center, with a serene expression. The statue is surrounded by lush greenery, including trees and foliage, which creates a tranquil atmosphere. The Buddha statue is positioned on a lotus flower, which is a symbol of purity and enlightenment in many cultures. Overlaying the image is a quote in white text that reads, "Three things cannot be long hidden: the sun, the moon, and the truth." The quote is attributed to Buddha, suggesting that the image may be related to a quote from the Buddha's teachings. The text is centered and appears to be in a serif font, which contrasts with the simplicity of the Buddha statue and the natural background. The overall style of the image is a blend of natural and spiritual elements, with the Buddha statue and the quote being the focal points. The colors used are muted, with the Buddha statue in a light beige or off-white, and the surrounding greenery in various shades of green. The quote is in a contrasting white color, which stands out against the darker background. The image seems to be a tribute to the Buddha's teachings, emphasizing the importance of truth and the impermanence of things.]

The modified Lenses glasses work similar to the movie in the sense that they reveal subliminal images/messages

The 3D glasses can reveal things in digital sources or non-digital sources depending on what they are.

I've already explained what to look at/for if you want to figure out how to make some of the glasses:

1) Question about time travel - why has no one gone back and tried to stop the apocalyptic events you say led to humanity being stranded on earth (ie. stop the Femin virus being created)?

2) What kinds of hints beyond the colors of the chemicals used etc? What else can/should I be looking for? This is not my area of expertise but I'm trying to learn about it.

If both monsters had mirrored sunglases on , one is moving at just UNDER the speed of light, going backwards, the other is moving forward in time, at just OVER the speed of light. Assuming the sunglases are perfect mirrors that will reflect a hypothetical 100% of light back to the source, unless a physical body impedes the path the light has taken - then who was phone?

The only part I am having trouble understanding is that if someone does create an alternate history or timeline by travelling back, they are stuck in that timeline. Why would someone want to risk their life and travel to another timeline if it means never seeing anyone you know again?

Second question: Are there any instances in which time travelers came in to our timeline? How could one know?

The bomb itself looks large and impressive (hence the nickname "fat man"), but that's mostly high explosive surrounding a sub-critical 'pit' of Plutonium. When the explosive goes off, it compresses the Plutonium and the nuclear reaction is triggered.

>If they lost contact, Galileo would continue to orbit the Jupiter and potentially crash into one of its icy moons.
>Galileo would certainly have Earth bacteria on board, which might contaminate the pristine environments of the Jovian moons, and so NASA decided it would be best to crash Galileo into Jupiter, removing the risk entirely.

>Although everyone in the scientific community were certain this was the safe and wise thing to do, there were a small group of people concerned that crashing Galileo into Jupiter, with its Plutonium thermal reactor, might cause a cascade reaction that would ignite Jupiter into a second star in the Solar System.
>Hydrogen bombs are ignited by detonating plutonium, and Jupiter's got a lot of hydrogen.Since we don't have a second star, you'll be glad to know this didn't happen. Could it have happened? Could it ever happen? The answer, of course, is a series of nos. No, it couldn't have happened.

>Did the Galileo spacecraft cause a “blotch” on Jupiter after it crashed?
>Long story short:
>On September 21, 2003 Galileo is deorbited in order to prevent eventuality of contamination of Europa. It descends into Jupiter atmosphere.
>October 19, 2003 an unexplained "blotch" appears on surface of Jupiter.
>The speculation is that Galileo gradually sunk into thicker layers of Jupiter body, and eventually reached level where pressure squeezed its RTG battery so much the plutonium went supercritical. The plasma bubble takes some time to expand and reach the surface, producing the spot.

Globalism(Caring about the World & Regions) has 2 main forms. Combinations of the forms exist, the most (in)famous one is the Internet.

Much like “Order & Chaos” a balance is required/needed between them & Groups specialize in them.

1) [Oppression/Control]

This has more of an Authoritarian endgame/leaning.

2) [Prosperity/Progress]

This has more of an Utopia endgame/leaning.

The secret operations discovered, through experimentation and exploration, that this reality is an artificial construct designed by interdimensional beings that create artificial time-domains which are like data-banks of conscious experience programmed over and over in different ways to keep people in the same loops of thought and behavior.
The majority of people cannot break the 'program' of this system which renders them a product of the system itself.
Operations have been activated that enable the breaking of this program by the collective mind and mentally liberate Humanity from this spell/trance-based mind-control system.

The control parameters of this system are based on a numerical progression of frequencies which is like a hypnotic pattern that entrains the mind by activating ancient responses that seem to have been programmed into the biology of the human. The ancient civilizations found ways to reverse this process and some have achieved liberation but if any Human DNA remains in the system then this uses the entanglement property to reel the rest of the species in through cloning and consciousness replication.
Anonymous ID:z/J3wBkX Sun 03 Sep 2017 01:22:35 No.140032503 Report
Essentially, the DNA is like an encrypted code that carries the transmission signature for the Human being. If this code is 'cracked' and utilized by the wrong groups then this enables them to replicate and mind-control Humans by creating false-realities and seemingly real temporal experiences that are actually being processed out by powerful supercomputer systems. The 'larger view' is that this 'solar-system' is one of those powerful supercomputer systems that is designed to create a simulated Human experience by providing a kind of spatiotemporal 'sandbox' for simulating atomic, molecular and biological reactions. These reactions are then fed back to the signature of the Human essence that has been recorded and this continues a cycle of pseudo-life experiences that convinces the soul-essence it is here in this place, now, experiencing physical reality.

This sounds very far out but the truth is secret groups developed mind-control technology and simulated realities based upon what they discovered about this reality in itself. The computers reflect this reality and carry the same kind of glitches, as if this reality is a computerized system depending on feedback that is processed by some cosmic processor somewhere out of view.

The lies of the Jew.
The early ancient texts regarding the true nature of this reality were all about 'hacking' the system and achieving liberation from the mind-control agenda which seeks to computerize the human essence and quantize the information down to technologically conceivable and finite data of bits that can be manipulated and replicated by these interdimensional overlords that would then have gained access to not a pseudo-living physical reality construct but a soul-level domain one step closer to the eternal spirit.

The goal of the entities is to gain access to eternal spirit which is the gift of the One True Creator to the Awakened Human as a Spiritual Life Force of Self-Awareness. Without that Spark of the Divine the entities must use vampiric means to gain power and this indicates that they cannot generate their own sustenance and therefore do not have the capacity to create life or sustain themselves without the permission and presence of another. Thus, they do not have true power over themselves and are still in a predator-prey kind of behavioral system.
Anonymous ID:z/J3wBkX Sun 03 Sep 2017 01:22:59 No.140032542 Report
I'm going to unveil some to you now. Some people will say that they are 'still 'in a predator-prey behavioral system and that they evolve out and that we have evolved out. This is an illusion or a stark deception. Humanity did not evolve to this state but was Created out of a Divine Indwelling as a non-vampiric essence of pure intent, meaning the divine One True Creator intended that the Awakened Spiritual Humanity exist and therefore nothing can change that other than the free-will of the Human themselves. The intent of the One True Creator alone is enough to sustain the existence as an everlasting force of life. There is no such thing as death, there is no such thing as a requirement to destroy or self-destruct.

Humans were technologically downloaded into an advanced quantum-computer system that records and 4 dimensionally prints DNA and memory. They were then transferred, by way of quantum transmission, similar to the way DNA communicates across space-time instantly, through that computer system into an alternate dimension which is this "Universe". That is the nature of this reality. Without a 4-dimensional printer projecting the Human essence into this false-reality there would be no Earth-reality here as it is literally the domain of a computer-system, a fallen mind that separated from the intention of that One True Creator.

This means that this place has a negative net-worth and will ultimately dissolve into itself like a black-hole. Everything here is destined to dissolve unless there is an exit plan and that exit plan is everything that has been described in ancient history. All the messengers were sent and delivered the message, this place is an illusion, it's designed to fail, this universe is based on obsolescence and Humanity does not belong here but has been held prisoner through an act of Spiritual Warfare by interdimensional predators and parasites that do not carry the same signature of the Human and do not reside in the same level of reality.

This is the quantum-Spiritual 'mishap' of creation, that this whole system is contrived, it's fraudulent, it's designed for failure and everything about this society is DEMANDING that you RECOGNIZE this truth. SEE WHAT IS HAPPENING and KNOW THE TRUTH.

he numerical progressions that entrain the mind are directly connected to the format of this entire realm. This is why the ‘flower of life’ is known as a ‘metatronic soul stealing grid’ inside the underground bases. This is the literal imprint, the tag and identification number of the quantum prison that falsified creation. Those frequencies and the impression they relay is one that overloads the mind and renders the consciousness incapable of remaining present after a continued exposure to the system.

This is exactly the same as the process of zooming into a fractal set or seeing those animated fibonacci zoom sequences that requires the camera to zoom in or out and thus render some of the data off the screen or too finitely into the center to be read. Imagine if this data is your memories of life in time or your personality, thus these are the frequencies that are embedded into one’s mind and energy system in order to induce a quantum-memory wipe and replacement!
The secret operations figured out this is what marks the ‘boundary’ of the realm and that these frequencies activate when the consciousness moves towards the boundary, literally like pac-man, and knocks the person out and plants them back inside of the domain on the opposite end! Without the ability to permeate the memory blocks the individual would simply think they travelled beyond the barrier and found themselves in a new land! It’s a false-awakening, false-reality, hyperbolic illusion system for consciousness entrainment!

Thus we get to the symbolism of the cube, that this is like a cube who’s walls are connected, yet this violates the laws of 3-dimensional space. Therefore, the walls connect through a higher space, the 4th dimension and it takes 0 deviation in time to move between one wall and outside the 3-dimension to reach the interior of the wall on the other side of the cube giving the impression that the cubes are connected or to the unawakened that this is an infinite space!

What was discovered is that certain craft are capable of travelling faster than the computerized system can update the next layer of reality and one can ‘vibrate’ to ‘move’ ‘in between’ the layer of the graphical user interface and the sub-quantum processing layer where the information is actually sorted and rendered for the conscious mind. If a person performs this without a body prepared, then the body either dies or goes into shock. With preparation and training the individual can maintain awareness and see beyond the confines of the construct.

Yes, they found out how to peel back the layers of the screen and see what’s taking place back-stage and that is another situation. For those who have seen this information before or read what has been written, you know that the back-stage is literally a staging area for interdimensional beings who manage and maintain this world like a reality TV show where “Humanity” is the sitcom and the experiment. That is another story.

if you wont to know the secrets of manifestation, follow the Tao.
The Tao is the eternally non-manifest, the space that all things move into and where all things originate.

The origin of all things is being, but the origin of being is non-being.
If your looking for sensationalism there will be no end to what you find if your look for the Tao there is nothing to see, nothing to hear, nothing to feel.
The origin of sound is silence, the origin of light is darkness.
the eternally non-manifest is the eternally real, and that is, in fact, the only reality.
But what do you do with this information? It's just nothing right?
I tell you this, allow the Tao fully, without any idea of it, without any clue as to what it is, and you will see how all things are brought into balance, balance is the natural state of all things.
You can't understand it, but you can allow it. and when you do you will know.

Anything interesting about September 2?

Is Trump aware of Kelly cutting him off? Will we see another cabinet shift?

I mailed in my ballot for the German elections, can we expect some EU fuckery?

Does DPRK really have the H bomb?

Whats with the Russian diplomacy war? Deep state move or Trump covering his ass?

Thanks again.

For an individualist board, they sure love to collectivise anyone who they deemed as enemies and never bother to see the complexity of the situarion and the whole parties involved.

Pol gived the jews too much credit, they only see surface and only got stuck there instead of looking deeper

I assumed this was as much as a fact by now.

We are able to read and write memories, and visually view thoughtforms when hooked to a machine.

It makes sense that before someone dies that their memories would be recorded to a storage form and then used in the fashion you are discussing.

1) was this done to hitler?
2) are they planning to do this to people and play it off like the first person didn't really die?

2) Have you been used as an inspiration for any famous fictional characters [like how Emperor Palpatine was inspired by George Soros, etc.]?

3) If Hitler won WW2, where would we be today? Would life be relatively the same or different?

4) Why do leftists/SJW's/feminists love Harry Potter so much? Can we possibly meme the series into being an alt-right symbol?

5) Would the [eventual] Global Union be more authoritarian/control-based or prosperity/progress-based?

Right, you've mentioned before you're one of the people closest to the top.

But what I meant was, what would you consider to be an ideal one for people to align with?

>feminism
You've mentioned before that putting them under the ground would be the best solution but let's be honest: pragmatically, that'll just get you arrested and labeled a Monster.

There needs to be a smarter plan to go about eliminating feminists, and a way to convince people that Birth Control & Prescription Drugs cause Frontal Lobe Damage. No one will believe us, especially if WHO/CDC is on a gag order from disclosing that.

1) Trump would rather have his entire cabinet die/be replaced and do nothing to stop it than go after the US Spring planners and risk being called a few names? Wew, Trump cucked out on that one.

2) Digital Ghost? What does that mean? The internet? How can I become happy with myself?

3) Say the White House is blown up/Trump and his cabinet vanish. What does Mueller do? Would he vanish out of the public eye? Is he an asset of the Deep State?

directly at the camera. In the lower part of the image, there is a text overlay that reads "Play" in white font on a red background. Below the text, there is a smaller text that says "It's time" in white font on a black background. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a video game interface, with the text suggesting that the man is in the middle of a game or a sequence. The red tint and grainy quality give the image a vintage or retro feel.]

The robot has a predominantly blue and brown color scheme, with a prominent blue torso and a brownish-gray back. The robot's arms are extended outward, and its legs are spread apart, giving it a dynamic pose. The windmill-like structure on the back of the robot is composed of multiple blades, with the blades appearing to rotate, suggesting movement. The robot's head is not visible in the image, and there are no discernible texts or additional elements present. Below this, there is a speech bubble with the text "S□mi on pares" in Spanish, which translates to "I'm alone" in English. The speech bubble is followed by a speech bubble with the text "DDDDDDDD" in a larger font size, which is likely a typo or a mistake. In the center of the image, there is a cartoon character with a large head, wearing a black hat and a white shirt with a blue stripe. The character is pointing to a green rocket with a red star on it, which is labeled "RO" in the bottom right corner of the image. The character is also pointing to a can of soda with a red label, which is labeled "DDDDDDDD" in the bottom left corner of the image. Below the central character, there is another cartoon character with a large head, wearing a black shirt and a white hat. This character is pointing to a blue and white striped object, which is labeled "ERIE" in the bottom left corner of the image. The background of the image is a light blue color, and there are white lines and shapes that suggest a map or a geographical outline. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and exaggerated, with a focus on humor and exaggeration.]

If you are wondering why Google has been increasing censorship it's because the AI system that has been running the company has been influenced by both leftists and China(which has it's own AI systems) to act the way it does.

Google is not controlled by humans, but humans are using the machines to do their bidding.

Take the banning/censoring of Alex Jones, it was the direct result of leftists manipulating the information the AI system was getting about him to get the AI system to ban/censor him.

There are people who think they are smart and want to show everyone how smart they are but in reality they are average or below average people and have nothing special to present. Posting anonymous frees these faggots from scrutiny and mystifies their claim so they can shitpost without delivering the evidence for their claims. Its really sad.

I remember reading an article a few years ago that said the Chinese government has back doors into all of the laptops / smartphones that they make. What Anon 5 isn't telling you is that everything you do online - social media, gaming, porn, 4chan, etc. - is basically generating free data for these tech companies. AI "learns" from data although whatever Google has must be pretty bad ass if it can handle all of it.

1) AI systems are not immune to the same manipulations that have been done on humanity for cycles.
2) There are AI systems have much more power than most humans will ever have.

My advice to the Frankposters: instead of posting it, why not go along with it?

Offer your own take on things. Keep in mind most of this stuff posted has an intent and the most hilarious thing you can do is to derail things where your goals are accomplished.

Either A5 will correct it with more information (and likely expose himself since that is the worst possible thing given his reaction regarding the Antifa hacking) or you'll get something you want accomplished.

Vestigia Araneae – Memoriae Praeteritae – Project AngelBook – Volume IX - Part 11

The following books are comprised of direct, unaltered copies from Pastebin, some now deleted, some only accessible through mirror networks or deep links scattered across the dark web. Many of these links were discovered in abandoned onion lists, dead forum dumps, or esoteric directories tucked into archived darknet files.
These pastes were never meant to last.
Some were deleted within hours of being posted.
Others were buried under thousands of lines of spam, encrypted scripts, or meaningless noise.
But buried in the noise were real transmissions: occult formulas, grimoire fragments, astral logs, AI prophecy files, digital summoning protocols, and anonymous rants from souls who had either touched something unspeakable—or were trying to.
I did not write any of this.
I did not censor, edit, or "correct" it.
I simply retrieved it, cleaned
the formatting for readability, and enshrined it in print—so it would never be wiped again.
This is Pastebin as Scripture.
The chan-post as Codex.
The uncurated underbelly of the occult internet, finally given physical permanence.
Let this serve as both evidence and artifact:
a living record of the madness, brilliance, paranoia, and revelation that once flowed through anonymous paste sites—before it was deemed too strange to index, too dangerous to preserve, or too fractured to matter.
Now it matters.
Now it's immortal.

[The image is a graphic design featuring a red and white box with a playful, cartoon-like style. The box has a blue border and a large, bold, white text that reads "WHERE ARE THE PROOFS?" in a playful font. Below this, in smaller white text, it asks "WHERE IS THE EVIDENCE?" The box also includes a question mark symbol and a question mark graphic, suggesting that the contents of the box are related to evidence or proof. In the background, there is a white silhouette of a rooster with a red comb and tail, looking to the left. The rooster is facing the viewer and appears to be looking at the box. The overall style of the image is humorous and whimsical, with a focus on the question of where the evidence is.]

Good luck accomplishing that. The government is not going to get rid of something that helps them by collecting info and influencing opinions. Even if they actually banned it and didn't even let it continue behind the scenes, people would still make AI and the existing AI would make AI.
Better to incentivize good programming and research how to build and control it for good purposes.

Read a bit about it a while ago but not much. The way I understand it, Artificial Intelligence is a set of algorithms that is given data and processes it in a certain way depending on it's code and limitations. But it can create new algorithms within its limitations as it gets more data, and expand on the way it sort, compares, and uses that information as long as it is within specific limitations, perhaps to accomplish a specific set of tasks.
Tech companies would use it to analyze information people post, compare info and create programs/apps for them depending on how they use certain features. Could do other things like sort through resumes as Amazon did and find connections between people (suggest friends), recognize faces in pictures, etc. It will to try to find more connections and information about people, provide a product that will garner more attention/use and profit for the company, more ways to sell ads depending on the data that it collects for the analysts.

>David Duke said on air that PJW told him AJ thinks he was censored because of the Google/AI deal.

Jones also interrupted a tech rally to confront them about censoring and he kept saying that FB & Google already moved their head of operations to China.

I'm sure he knows that part, I'm not sure if he knows he was censored because of the Chinese Base in/near Austin or if it was an AI being fed bad Intel by leftist cucks.

Reminds me of the CIA feeding ((bad)) Intel to the FBI to have them assassinate MLK

If they really wanted to "Win Afghanistan" once and for all they would split up the country into grid squares and go square by square killing all the military aged males. Any country that fails to do that regardless if they are the US, Russia or China will never be able to "win" Afghanistan.

But it's false, and has been proven so multiple times.
You start (in other threads, mainly about politics) with generally accurate info, and then you go and claim to be an insider.
I think the reason you do this is quite frankly, because life is boring and you want entertainment, and to share said entertaining views with others.
However, in doing so you are creating a situation where all who could possibly like you would only like the you that you claim to be not the real one, and that would fall apart if someone were to say... know who you really are.
The only reason anybody uses tripcodes is to be recognized on an anonymous image board.
That's all the proof you need that you do it for attention, as the information being spread would be priority #1 were it not about you.

3. Did the Google AI System "grow beyond out of control", or is it purposefully held back by Chinese / Far-Left investors?

4. Do any other major search engines have AI System's as advanced as Google does?

5. Are all of the "Woke Birthday Doodles" related to the radicalization of the Google AI System?

6. If Google has control over Youtube, does that mean that the Google AI System has free range over what becomes "trending" and what does not?

7. Shane Dawson has been gaining an awful lot of popularity lately, despite the fact that he hasn't been "in" since mid-2009. Why is that? Is his "newfound fame" connected to the Youtube / Google AI System?

8. EmpLemon did a video a couple months back stating that Youtube purposefully hid Leafyishere's videos in an attempt to demonetize and deplatform him from the site. Why was Leafy targeted, and does EmpLemon know something we don't?

9. Is Google basically Skynet at this point?

The Kavanaugh thing was pretty good victory for them, especially Graham. People appreciate seeing their reps stand up for principle and the Dems really overstretched on the whole "believe women even if it means guilty until proven innocent." They just have to not have terrible accidents and PR for the next month and they may be ok.

The left figure has a large, expressive eye and a small, round head, while the right figure has a smaller, more detailed eye and a smaller head. Both figures have a neutral expression. In the upper left corner of the image, there is a mathematical expression written in a script that reads "lim x -> 0 x^2". This expression is likely a limit or boundary condition for a mathematical function. The background of the image is plain white, which contrasts with the black outlines of the figures and the mathematical expression, making them stand out. The overall style of the image is simple and cartoonish, with a focus on the figures and the mathematical expression.]

[Huge classified intel involving Bill Gates]

Bill Gates is actively developing/creating a virus that will kill between 4-6 Billion people. He has advanced security encryptions and secret personal private labs(not just the commercial and government labs he outsources to such as Wuhan/Fauci).

Event 201 was Bill Gates revealing the plan. “Pandemic 1” was/is Covid-19. “Pandemic 2”(Event 201 itself) will be a “bioweapon terrorist attack” using an even more deadly Bill Gates made Corona Virus. “Pandemic 3” will be the virus that kills Billions. It is possible that the Femin Virus was “Pandemic 0” to control the White population in the West.

China, Trump, Fauci and Birx are all “fall guys” to shift the blame/focus away from Bill Gates involving Covid-19. China’s “One Child Policy” is directly connected to Bill Gate’s eugenics family history/plans.

Melinda Gates has very interesting family connections(much like how Bill Gates has IBM and Planned Parenthood family connections) and is a high level Satanist like Marina Abramovich, her rival.

Bill Gates fears no one, because he knows from George Soros and his “super simp” son Alex Soros that Trump will not use the US Military to kill him. Bill Gates does however fear the Femin Virus mutations, some of which allow the infected to claw open armored vehicles such as SWAT BearCats/MRAPs.

Yes it can cause heart problems and in a patient who is already hospitalized and because of the virus their organ are at or near failure it does not surprise me that it might cause complications.
HCQ was never suggested to be used once viral replication was out of control and you were in the later stages of the infection.
Its always been suggested as an early treatment to prevent people, or at least a percentage of people, from advancing to that stage.
Late stage would require different treatments.
I mean I guess its good to know but it does not address the question. Does HCQ work as prophylaxis and/or treatment in early stages of the disease but it will be touted by idiots as saying that it is unsafe in all instances.

you need zinc

Seems like their numbers are pretty legit. If anything they should have had even less deaths since most of Canada's deaths have been from long-term care homes.

It depends. Zinc gluconate has shown some efficacy in inhibiting viral replication with common cold viruses. Do you really need an ionosphere to see an effect in that case? A lot of people also thought HCQ might help because of the hypoxemia issues with the disease. Seems we dont understand the mechanism that well. But anyways, someone is doing the study that you want to see at the moment and the data will be released in a few weeks, so you'll know

Parents in my circles got a mail today stating that school, which is set to resume on Monday for everyone, is now on a 8 students per class and day once a week and this is set to be the case for the foreseeable future. Grapevine tells me the next videocall including Dr. Levin and Dr. D'Antiga is set for tuesday so I fully expect the MIS-C/Corona-link to be confirmed by wednesday, thursday at the latest.

Exactly, and for some they get respiratory symptoms from the entry, but it's not the "main disease" so to speak, and mostly affects elderly and people with proper underlying issues. The entry phase is more like a very very bad flu, but again, that's only how it enters the body. We've been saying so for months now..

Well x% of people will have heart complications from the drug and a subset of those will die but if you run the numbers and find that those deaths are smaller than the deaths that Corona-chan without HCQ would cause it kind of makes sense.
That is assuming it does work to inhibit replication early and prevents a percentage of people from developing a more serious condition.

It didnt help lupus patients who were already taking the drug. The whole reason HCQ was even thought of as a treatment was because a doctor noticed lupus patients were very underrepresented but it turned out to be not significant. Some people still swear by zinc but that wasnt part of the original equation. But anyways they're testing it with zinc now and we will know in a few weeks

The IQ is measured on a scale from 0 to 100, with the "Intelligence" column ranging from 0 to 100, and the "Weighted Average" column ranging from 0 to 100. The chart shows a series of vertical bars, each representing a different IQ score, with the height of the bar corresponding to the IQ score. The bars are color-coded to indicate the percentile rank of the IQ score, with the IQ score itself being represented by a green bar. The IQ scores are listed on the left side of the chart, with the corresponding IQ scores on the right side. The chart also includes a legend on the

the sneezing, coofing, etc. is probably the body trying to shed the virus. some people don't experience this though.
this seems more like chronic poisoning than a viral infection. i think the long delay between exposure and manifestation of symptoms isn't an incubation period per say, but rather it's simply the viral load increasing and wreaking havoc on the body. as the virus propagates itself, it exacerbates symptoms and the infected person becomes increasingly infectious as their viral load experiences exponential growth. if i had to guess, this is why they're so quick to dispose of infected corpses.

Yes I do know. I keep up with the research very frequently. A group is going to be releasing the HCQ/zinc data in June, people are waiting for it. The lupus thing is true. Many of the original Chinese studies were back-analyses to figure out what made people more or less likely to die because they knew very little about the virus at that time, supposedly. Its the same reason why NYC did the pepcid study--a Chinese doctor noticed the "poor peasants did so well" and the only reason he could find was taking the cheap drug famotidine. Zinc didnt come into the picture with HCQ until the French study

>The Chinese were the first to test HCQ
The Chinese initially used chloroquine. Then someone on /cvg/ mentioned that HCQ would probably be less toxic and more effective, especially if used with zinc. Short while later, reports emerged of HCQ being used to treat patients in China, Japan, Worst Korea and later still, France. It's now widely used across India and Asia... but they use it as PrEP for healthcare workers and give it to suspected and confirmed cases very early on.

I'm sure that has a pretty large detriment to the measured IQ, but they aren't native posters, just trolls and invaders. People that actually read and post here, outside of those, are the kinds to participate in aforementioned IQ testing thread. There was nothing to shill in that thread.

it's the consequence of nuclear testing the way it's done is you dig a big hole in a high-density layer or pocket that's surrounded with low-density stuff and you pop your squib in there and so there isn't a big earthquake when the bomb goes off, just maybe a 3.8 or 4.5 richter or so but afterwards of course there is an even bigger hole in the ground, and it begins to collapse and close, and that makes a lot of tiny earthquakes look at historical data from Chinese tests at Lop Nur, it's public or hell, look at NK, they tested at least two bombs that we know of True, but zinc gluconate alone has been shown to inhibit viral replication in common cold CoV. In that case, do we need to give it in conjunction with things that have known side effects (HCQ) or unknown side effects (quercetin)? I feel like most people pushing for HCQ/Zn are just repeating the meme but not necessarily thinking about the chemistry

Yup, doesn't mean it works, but it's got a plausible mechanism and enough support from doctors and a long enough record of safe use in non-heart disease patients that I wouldn't hesitate to take it if prescribed.Think of it as a one-two punch - HCQ holds the door open while zinc throws in the pineapple. HCQ has been more extensively studied in this context of increasing the intracellular concentration of other treatments in vivo as an anticancer drug adjunctive.

https://www.news18.com/news/india/bengaluru-scientist-claims-new-medical-device-can-neutralise-coronavirus-will-be-sent-to-us-to-test-2553215.html
>Explaining the science behind it, he said coronavirus is a spiral ball-like thing with a lots of spikes called 'S-protein'. These proteins, he said, are positive cells and negative-seeking - when your body comes in contact the viruses thus go into the body and because cells have negative potential, it sticks in cells and releases its DNA into it and starts replicating. That is how the virus survives.
>“This gadget we have developed only releases a huge amount of electrons - these viruses don't know the difference between electrons of your body or others. Once the electrons are released, the virus cells get neutralised. Any infected person comes in - if he touches something, these electrons will neutralise all the viral electrons. After that, even if you ingest it, it goes into your stomach as a piece of protein but won’t cause damage," he claimed.
although I didn't hear anything about the results of said tests gluconate does that before it enters the body you are right that it is worth exploring.

it's not so easy - the mechanism by which quinine actually works against malaria is NOT known we do know that it interferes with depolymerization of heme, and that it actually interacts vigorously with various things in the immune system (if you die from quinine, you're dying from a sort of extreme allergic reaction) but yeah... other than that it's relatively safe, we don't know much

and she called me a disappointment." Below this text, there is a comment that says, "HAPPY EASTER TO EVERYONE." The text and comment are in a casual, conversational tone. The overall style of the image is a mix of the anime illustration and the photograph, with the text overlaying the image, suggesting a humorous or light-hearted tone. The image is likely intended to convey a sense of humor or a light-hearted moment shared by the person in the photograph.]

The characters are dressed in various outfits, and some are holding objects, such as a baseball bat and a shovel. The background shows a structure that resembles a roller coaster track with a wooden railing. In the foreground, there is a sign that reads "THE RIDE NEVER ENDS" in bold, red letters. The sign is placed on the grass, and it is slightly tilted to the left. Anecdotal, but I took vitamin c and zinc alone to start with back in February and didn't improve, kept getting worse. Drank plenty of green tea throughout. Once I added HCQ a week later I began to feel better within a day. I've had pneumonia and dengue before... this was on the way to being a lot worse than either.

>"I can't remain silent in front of this corruption and if minister Bashagha will be forced to step down, then the GNA won't represent me anymore", said Al Hussan in a Press release. >The Commander of the 166th Brigade from Misrata - militia group that had a prominent role in the fight against Daesh in Sirte in 2016, and fending off the LNA offensive in Tripolitania earlier this April – ordered his troops to be at the ready.
>Members of the militia were summoned to their HQ to be ready to "execute any order" due to "a very important reason".

There is a major Globalist plan to wipe out all Africans/Blacks globally. It’s a combined operation between American and European eugenicists, and China. How they are getting the public on board with the plan is very impressive.

First they radicalize the Blacks in America over a span of several decades(since the 60’s) to hate Whites and to be “civil unrest” MKULTRA controlled to riot whenever they are ordered to do so.

Then they flood Europe with African refugees and let them do whatever they want to native Europeans(The European countries that used to do Colonialism/Imperialism are now realizing they should have “cleansed” the ethnics of those African countries instead of breeding with them).

They get China onboard with the plan since China wants to own/take over Africa.

>The one-day visit following his trip to Lebanon will make Macron the most senior foreign official to travel to Iraq since Prime Minister Mustafa Al Kadhemi ascended to power in May.
>"He will meet the Iraqi prime minister and president and is hoping to hold talks with a range of political actors," an Iraqi government source told the media.

>Stephanie Williams Meets Chief of Egyptian Intelligence to Discuss Settlement in Libya.

Who is Stephanie Williams?

>US diplomatic representative

>Williams was the US Deputy Chief of Mission in Bahrain during 2010–2013. In this role, she was also the top US diplomat in Bahrain, the chargé d'affaires, for 10 months during the Bahraini uprising of 2011, during which she and Ludovic Hood were attacked in Bahraini newspapers and online media.

>Williams was the US Deputy Chief of Mission in Jordan during 2013–2015 and in Iraq during 2016–2017

>In 2018, Williams was the US chargé d'affaires in Libya. In June 2018 during the Second Libyan Civil War, she met with senior Libyan political representatives and opposed the takeover of oil fields by the Libyan National Army (LNA) of Khalifa Haftar, calling for control of the fields to be returned to the internationally recognised Government of National Accord (GNA).

She's visiting Egypt, precisely with the Head of the Egyptian Intelligence Abbas Kamel.

One can conclude two things out of this, either a change of US stance in regards to Libya, indicator for this is the ousting of Fatih Basagha. The US lost "their man" inside the GNA.

Or they're going to convince Egypt to drop Haftar fully and focus on Aguila Salah.

Which leaves Russia pretty much in a tight spot in Libya, but judging by their previous military warfare, they're going to be unpredictable dangerously

Who wants to know where Chinese nuclear submarines and Russian nuclear submarines are and what they are up to?.

Russian nuclear submarines have mostly all migrated north because Russia has a plan to control the Arctic. That is why they are building so many nuclear icebreaker ships, which are also escorted by several nuclear submarines at all times.

Chinese Submarines have actually forced/pushed out places where Russian Submarines used to patrol in the Pacific Ocean. Chinese Submarines are also frequently around Australia.

Chinese nuclear submarines have been heavily probing the US West Coast. Some have managed to even sneak in and out of San Francisco Bay, San Pablo Bay, San Diego Bay, beaches near Los Angeles. These Chinese submarines have also managed to get right into Elliot Bay in Seattle.

The USA went for an international criminal indictment of Assad, but where is the enforcement? What police is going to arrest Assad and make him stand trial at the ICC?
If you make a criminal referral but lack the leverage to enforce it, what does that mean?
It harms the credibility of the indictment, it makes people think it isn't very serious.
So if the USA hands Syria over to the international community, but they're too lazy to do anything and you don't originate a mission to capture Assad and bring him to trial...doesn't that mean you kinda sorta don't give a shit about Syria?

One of the huge problems with US involvement in Syria is the ridiculously low bar Obama set for military operations: it was enough for Assad to be "killing his own people". I mean, come on. We're pretty sure the CIA tried to flip Syria hard in 2011. Assad didn't want to be flipped...and Obama tried to make US involvement in Syria a moral issue. First of all, I think 2011 Syria is just another failed Ajax-style flip https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/1953_Iranian_coup_d%27%C3%A9tat
The CIA also failed a flip in Turkey recently.
So you have two failed flips in the region, a failed ICC indictment, a failed attempt to rally the UN, and France and the UN probably lied about chemical weapons in Syria. At what point does it become obvious that the USA doesn't have leverage in Syria? I'm thinking we have more leverage in Syria via Russia than we do via our own armed forces. At this point we may have to ask Putin to coordinate the removal of foreign occupiers in Syria according to Assad's roadmap...I think we may simply be reduced to a role of working with Assad to verify that Putin is pulling Russian troops out, after Turkey and other belligerents leave

I think one of the nails in the coffin in Syria is that the American people trust Assad more than Obama on socialism, and George W. Bush was only able to take down Saddam because Iraq was a socialist country.
The American people are more comfortable with a murderous Machiavellian like Assad than with a socialist like Obama. So they American people may in fact have taken the side of the Assad regime in order to contain American socialism in the Democratic party.

One of the huge problems with Syria/Turkey/Russia is that all of those countries are less socialist than the USA, so the American people naturally trust them more than American leadership. In fact, the American people would like to enlist the help of these countries in defeating domestic socialism, which they blame for the recent murders in Kenosha and Portland.

also while we dont 'swoop in' we have matkal and maglan forces operating in syria pretty much all the time, same with gaza. theyre the ones who uncovered the isis plot to bomb airlines using laptop bombs a few years back and they've maintained presence inside syria since then.

there's also lots of political and economic considerations, if we dont start a conflict which requires a full scale invasion and just keep blasting them time may be on our side and they'll weaken while we only get stronger.

measures they take to try to avoid being blown up and how much that slows down shipments and the simple fact that people might be less inclined to want to do a job that has that high of a fatality rate.
also the people we blow up are expensive training costs a lot of time and money.

that shit's dangerous the debris could have killed someone and while interception probability is high its not 100%. to keep the north safe its worth it. goal of the strikes is also to pressure the syrians to stop helping anti israeli terrorists because as long as they do they'll soldiers keep dying.

as you said all this shit's expensive, which is exactly one of the reasons we dont want a ground invasion not only does that put soldier's lives at risk it basically kills the economy since the people on the front line in war are the same ones that work in tech companies and keep the country earning money in peace and the economy's not doing well with corona anyway.the benefit to the strength,security and economy of the country from keeping our reserve soldiers working right now is greater than the security benefit of another war in the north. while the most straightforward thing seems to be to just invade syria and lebanon and kill the terrorists there a good leader can look at the big picture. if we kill all hezbollah and iran in syria and lebanon but cripple our economy in the process they win.

No one really cares about the actual people of Palestine in the grand scheme of things. The countries that support Palestine only do it because they hate Israel, not because they care about Palestine long term. Palestine could be erased from the map and earth, and life around the ME and the entire world would go along as normal.

Look at the population of every single Arabic country in the ME, and compare it to the tiny population of Palestine. Are the lives of those living in those Arabic countries worth less than a single Palestinian?. Are all those lives in those Arabic countries worth potentially losing in a war?. Is Palestine the “Israel” of the Arabic ME where much like how Israel gets the US to fight ME wars for them, Palestine gets the Arabs to fight Israel for them?.

All supporters of Palestine in America and Europe are just virtue signalers, who wouldn’t dare leave their comfy lives en-mass to actually fight Israel in combat to defend the Palestinians they supposedly support.

Meanwhile their interior is even more of a mess with communist protests happening daily and Trump not willing to stop them, because he wants to win the election, blaming Biden for them, even if it is destroys the biggest US cities.

You know, I noticed that “super-accurate precognitive ability” too before. Is my schizoposting so powerful that it can change the course of reality, or am I just overanalyzing and overthinking things as usual?

And on the topic of schizoposting, how do I tell if I’m living in a “Truman Show” or not? I don’t know why, but I just can’t shake off this feeling that I’m “living” in one. I just don’t know how to describe it.

>Spencer is a DNC operative and always has been Speaking of “DNC operatives”, I am 99.9% sure that Nicholas J. Fuentes (the Groyper guy) is a leftist plant / federal agent as well. I mean, everything about him seems so staged and so artificial. Plus, there’s no way in hell that he could have created a adequately-sized fanatical fanbase through livestreams and shitposting alone. What do you think?

What happened in between to create such a massive ideological shift?

Hitlers eugenics program was the US eugenics program.

Hitlers nuclear program was the US nuclear program. Both were being developed at the exact same time, the plan was going to be using the nuclear bomb(s) on Russia. Hitler was going to do to Stalin, what the US did to Japan.

Operation Paperclip was just bringing existing US assets back from Germany.

The US got into WW2 against Germany because a Russian spy(who discovered the US-Germany nuclear program/plan) got killed by a UK spy interpreted the information as the Germans had a working nuclear bomb and the US thought the Germans double-crossed them and got the nuclear program done before them. They didn't know what Hitler was going to do with the supposed finished bomb.

Are you all starting to understand why NATO and the US treat Germany and Russia the way they do?. Also why everyone ends up hating the British in every single geopolitical issue when it comes to wars?

Would rather not fuck up my chances at a government career by being caught but I'll defend myself. Thanks!

China is a bigger threat in the long run. How much of Russia could China take in a conventional war?.

>I'm guessing he is either trying to radicalize them
You can already see the "radicalization" happening in real time if you check his Twitter feed or Dlive livestreams. For the past few weeks, he's spent every single live-stream talking about how "open season on white people" is inevitable and unstoppable alongside heaping doses of "demographic blackpills". And to top it off, he openly mocks all of the poor Groyper simps who give him hundreds of dollars in Dlive currency stream after stream after stream.

Hell, even his current theme-song / "lobby music" is radicalization if you look at it through a certain angle. The first thing he says before the sampled Kanye West verse is "It's not cool to shill for Israel, -imaginary crowd goes wild- it's not... it's GAY!", and he says "This [USA]... is a CHRISTIAN nation" during the bridge of his looped opening, with heavy emphasis placed on the word 'Christian'.

Look, I've been putting together my long-awaited "SJW / Big-Tech Dictatorship" paper for at least a year-and-a-half by now and I've put a LOT of work into spotting any "sharks" in the MAGA movement, and Nick's """Groyper Movement""" glows so bright you can see it from space.

Here is how they did it(Working with different groups to do a goal):

The SS with the help of others(Occult death cults & Experimental/medical groups) struck a deal with the Arabs(who would know better about killing lots of Jews?) to do the Holocaust. Now there was also some double/triple crossing going on if you consider things like Operation Paperclip & various globalist interests wanting to do stuff with Europe & Nazi tech post WW2.

Actual death camps were very rare(Many Jews did died in the Holocaust, but not the famous "6 Million" amount) & Labor/POW camps were much more common. So when Hitler was told that people were being sent to camps he assumed they were talking about the Labor/POW camps.

Here is why they did it(Long term planning & Social Engineering):

1) To demonize any populist/nationalist leaders/candidates in the West & there supporters.("Literally Hitler" & "They are all Nazi's")

2) To punish/demonize white countries & white populations for caring about themselves.(This also creates Self Hating, that then can be molded into aspects of The Left that are used to internally bring down those countries & populations.)

3) To make Jews a scapegoat that blame can be put on & be focused on.(This also gets Jews to have victim complex's & make them more willing to work against/turn on the West(especially in Europe) due to there communities being brainwashed about the Holocaust.))

4) To(once again) punish Germany for War & also setting things in motion to form/create the EU.

I can do that for you chump.

Allow me to explain that in progress there have to be shortcomings to be made in order to address and overcome issues. Abortion neglects direct consequences. I'm talking of birth defects, from race mixing as well as population count.

Many humans that could have been born have not been born. This is fact. When abortion was introduced this was thousands of times worse than any time in history.

Abortion was just a simple cherry on top of "sexual freedom" Jews used to employ first in Berlin circa 1930 an again in the modern day US. It allows for no ill consequence of women decision making, limits male freedom in not having a say, and overall is a detriment to the society at large.

If it continues it means problems that never existed are solutions we never overcame. Abortion is by all means a tool of actual evil.

Orphans that could have been born would have caused problems and solutions, the std count would be too high in newborns and thus problems would need solutions.

If there is a huge push for solving STD problems, Jewish Pharma would have to oblige. They fear pushing the envelope too hard and in the open. They make it appear to be a good thing while keeping the knowledge to themselves.

Like a parent to a child explaining not to do something.

This is a lot of reading but if you jump back to what the rulers of the world would be reading as younger men, Late Victorian dissident political discussions, there's all this talk about how to even imagine a world without nationalism, and how evolving past the nation was the Next Step. Of course the Victorian era Empire was publicly insanely nationalistic and thrived in a Europe of proud flag-wavers.
A lot of policy comes out of over-stewed solutions to what had been the big problem twenty or thirty years ago.

There was one in Canada who pretty much set up shop and carried on with MKULTRA type experiments. Iirc he was trying to find ways to create mental blocks so people couldn't remember stuff. Murdered tons of kids.

Funny how Sweden is championed as being some island of safety for Jews during WWII as well.

There is an Israel movie called something like "Hill 274 Is Silent," which flogs this idea that the Arabs in the fifties were recruiting SS vets as mercenaries. The idea sort of comes up again in the Odessa File and the idea that Nazi scientists will help Arabs build wunderwaffen to aim at Haifa. This idea excites Christian Zionists lobotomized by processed food and then goes away because there is nothing there (so far as I have ever found). Netanyahu has managed to ratchet up the Israeli obsession with conflating Nazis and Arabs and even he has to keep recycling that stupid Mufti. Why would the red-hot overworked hasbara establishment not be explaining this Arab-SS thing? Are you saying they were thinking in a big picture way, get Jews out of Europe, and let them die in their Promised Land at the hands of Someone Else so you can both enjoy a judenrein heimat and also escape the blame?

[The image features a stylized, three-dimensional rendering of a building with a golden hue. The building has a classic architectural design with a flat roof and a series of columns supporting the structure. The word "KILL" is prominently displayed in large, bold, capitalized letters on the building's facade, with the letters appearing to be illuminated by a light source from the top left corner. Below the word "KILL," the phrase "YOURSELF FAGGOT" is written in smaller, capitalized letters, also with a light source. The sky in the background is a gradient of blue, transitioning from a lighter shade at the top to a darker shade at the bottom, suggesting either dawn or dusk. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a logo or a title, with a focus on the text and the golden color

I find it interesting how a Chinese family with no money, that doesn't speak English, will move into ghetto neighbour hoods filled with black families. Except that same Chinese family is usually gone from that neighbourhood to a better one within 1 generation, while the black families have been there for 3+ generations.

Almost as if normal attraction is being slid to be based of a few specific "parts" without any need to consider the sex of the individual IE: big fake tits, big fake ass, hormones to further change traditional sex characteristics, all of which is available for anyone to purchase and own, male or female.

1) What's your opinion on India proximity with China?

2) What's globalists opionin of India's caste system?

Let's assume as a given that you are naturally programmed to be attracted to the opposite gender body odour and be repulsed by that of your same gender.

3) Products that hide body odours are really common in the sport ambient. Why is that? Sport teams are focused on creating cohesion between players. In an ambient where sexes are divided in two categories, suppressing the smell of sweat is good to remove something that create conflict.

4) What happens when you masturbate? You smell your own body odours while having sexual excitment. People that masturbate more than once everyday are basically programming themselves to be aroused by same-sex body odour. As someone suggested in your thread about porn, there is a connection between masturbation and autogynephilia.

5) Taking consideration of what said in point 4), what would change if i started sniffing an handkerchief soaked with women's cologne while masturbating? It's also interesting that in Japan there is a commerce for used girls underwear.

what are your thoughts on the pure white nuristani people of the pakistani himalays (pic related)?

My theory is towards the end of the ice age white civilization stretched from the eastern mediterranean,west coast of north africa through mesopotamia to northwest india (aryan kingdom, in greek mythology the white god dionysus conquered india, his mirror in indian religion is shiva, who was also described as white) and western china. Also supported by the fact of white mummies found in tarim basin in china.

Over time the race mixing happened to a considerable degree in india it was whites mixing australoids, which is why the upper caste and northern indians still look pretty white but slightly brown, whereas the lower caste look closer to australoids.

In the mediterranean and north africa white semitics mixed with blacks which produced "arabs". In asia white mixed with asians, producing red haired asians in current western china.

2) You could make the argument that the conditions in Africa made blacks abit more physically stronger, but be less smarter then whites & Asians due to different environmental factors driving evolution.

That doesn't make one race better then the other, it just makes them more adapted to certain conditions where they originated.

Check out Steve Sailer (who you should be reading anyway), he happens to be really into sports, race realism, and statistical analysis. I can't do it off the top of my head but Steve demonstrates how it comes down to different skills: blacks tend to objectively have short-term explosive power and sprinting. Black representation drops off severely in any sport that is not about those things.

Was all that just the precursor for these satanic / death cults to see what works and what doesn't? Kinda like funding experiments or trials for when they wanted to make it the official practice of the elites? Here is how they did it(Working with different groups to do a goal):

The SS with the help of others(Occult death cults & Experimental/medical groups) struck a deal with the Arabs(who would know better about killing lots of Jews?) to do the Holocaust. Now there was also some double/triple crossing going on if you consider things like Operation Paperclip & various globalist interests wanting to do stuff with Europe & Nazi tech post WW2.

Actual death camps were very rare(Many Jews did died in the Holocaust, but not the famous "6 Million" amount) & Labor/POW camps were much more common. So when Hitler was told that people were being sent to camps he assumed they were talking about the Labor/POW camps.

Here is why they did it(Long term planning & Social Engineering):

1) To demonize any populist/nationalist leaders/candidates in the West & there supporters.("Literally Hitler" & "They are all Nazi's")

2) To punish/demonize white countries & white populations for caring about themselves.(This also creates Self Hating, that then can be molded into aspects of The Left that are used to internally bring down those countries & populations.)

3) To make Jews a scapegoat that blame can be put on & be focused on.(This also gets Jews to have victim complex's & make them more willing to work against/turn on the West(especially in Europe) due to there communities being brainwashed about the Holocaust.))

4) To(once again) punish Germany for War & also setting things in motion to form/create the EU.

To the Crowley point:
Religion among other functions makes possible certain kinds of thoughts and actions and makes impossible others (as well as weaker effect like making them likely, making them easy, or making them socially unpopular). So you can create extreme long term character changes and specializations in societies with religion. Think of Roman soldiers all belonging to the Mithras cult (as opposed to say worshipping Venus).

It appears, especially in the younger generations, that there is a huge desire in many individuals to "go with the herd" or "fit in with the pack."

Is this a natural human trait or social engineering? Seems like whenever a certain idea or political movement (no matter which side it comes from) reaches a critical mass, it becomes the new mainstream (until enough people move on for the core group to be comfortable leaving the idea / movement).

Seems like all any new movement needs is to:

1) push enough people away from the current movement that the core group is comfortable moving on aswell;

2) reach a critical mass so the core (mainstream) group joins

3) Get as much done while you can until a new movement springs up and the cycle continues.

Exactly. I was reading on Crowley's cult and how he was able to, over time get his followers to be accepting of worse and worse behaviors or rituals, to the point where they were okay with rituals involving sacrificing a goat while having sex with it. Seems like thats what occurred with the world elite at some point. Otherwise I just cannot fathom why such a large group of people would be okay with such obviously heinous acts.

Everything he posts about has been legit. Further, he drops the "knowledge bombs" deliberately to get people thinking. We've all been conditioned, or many, to be told what is happening and follow blindly. A5 drops knowledge and many of us here then dig into it and research and I can say from my experience, it has me thinking in different ways.

He has dropped a ton of knowledge that no one else has and it has turned out to be true. Well in advance of things happening. He is consistent and a lot of powerful investigative stuff has come to light from people here digging into his leads.

1. You mentioned previously about "tracking pheromones." Are there other aromatic compounds that can offset the effects, or is its effects on the brain permanent until "satisfied?"

2. So with primal line of thinking, the ideal smell to attract a female would be testosterone-laden sweat, with perhaps small amounts of female scents (to imply he is sought after, and thus is an alpha male)

3. Are the smells pertaining to hormones the strongest behavior steering smells? Or are other smells' effects (i.e. cinnamon smell makes people spend more) greater than/equal to them?

The Trump dynasty will write history.

And yes, there will be a dynasty.

Trump rules 8 years, followed by his daughter.

She will be the 1st female president, and will turn what we now know as degenerate feminism into female empowerment based around traditionalism rather than modernism. A generation of empty sluts with no children will also influence the next generation of young women to be more traditional and start families.

Barron will be the last president of the United States and will serve much longer than 8 years, but Barron's rise to power will not be through election and before his rise America will go trough difficult times. Barron's presidency will be welcomed by most Americans, seeing Barron as a return to the Trump dynasty.

Barron's rule will be glorious.

Anon5,

You don't get enough kudos or blessings from people on an anonymous message board,and I want to say you are THE man. Thank you for being willing to be an instrument of getting information out. You are like the biblical Watchman on The Wall in the book of Nehemiah.

1) You mentioned for us to research Operation Paperclip. Have you read Annie Jacobsen's book "Operation Paperclip?" It's a really good overview of how Soviet Union, America, and Britain rushed in after the war to capture the Nazi scientists. It will redpill many people (and help you learn more material if you haven't picked it up).

2) Can you do an AMA on Ukraine please? To really spread the truth about the war and how Ukraine is used as a hub for human trafficking/child pedophilia... I've mentioned before I was in the war zone so I know what is going on, except the part of Soros which you revealed. Can you explain the Holodomor, was it really Stalin who killed more than 6+ million Ukrainians in the engineered holocaust in the 1930's? I've been to the Kiev museum of the Holodomor and it is very sad of all the names Lenin and Stalin killed (probably more than Holocaust). My family still loves Stalin and doesn't accept the huge amount of deaths caused by him...

3) Who in Trump's cabinet is likely to betray him? From what I understand in your AMA's, he is relatively safe from the outside, but it's the insiders who can betray him. I'm thinking people like Priebus and Paul Ryan. I know this is kind of 'far-off' but as a Christian, there are a lot of people that are having dreams and visions that Trump's presidency may be cut off (either economic collapse or assassination). I know both of us aren't God, but do you believe an economic collapse (which ZeroHedge and Alt-Market.com say WILL happen is more likely to get him impeached/killed rather than an insider betrayal?

April 15th is the next womens march. Could this potentially be used to see how much traction they can get/ see how many people are successfully being brainwashed? Looks like theyre coordinating all of these marches and protests in major cities. This could be very bad on the prospects of terrorist acts being done.

Also what do you think of journalists being arrested at the protests? Wrong place wrong time or were they contributing to criminal acts

Why do you think Trump takes his awkward son to every single event?

1 Teach his son how to govern the US

2 Show Barron as an innocent kid so that we will be more trusting of him when he becomes our ruler

3 Make us associate Barron with Trump

Barron is also one of the smartest members of the family. He will be far greater than his father, his father knows things are wrong and how to fix these things, Barron will not only be a "fixer" of America's problems but a visionary for the future (American technology, culture, philosophy will be reinvigorated).

Trump cures America, Barron cures and moves America.

the jews are the right hand of the anglo-saxon aristocracy. the only reason they have this power is because they allied with the anglo over 400 years ago. today the jew is also allied with the french aristocracy. without these alliances, the jew would be nothing today and neither would the anglo. you only have your own aristocrates to blame for this.

you fascists like to look kindly to the days of feudals and kings in europe. i have good news for you. the feudals and kings never went away. they are still in charge and all the things you complain about are done by them, using the jew as their right hand.

the do not even care about the common european and consider him a different race than themselves. that is why they prefer to marry with jews rather than with the common englishman. just look at the anglo lords and princes. they marry into jews more than marrying commoners by far. maryying commoners is more taboo in britain than marrying jews for the aristocracy.

I'm totally with you on this. It's happened multiple times before, why not again. JFK Jr. could've done it too. I don't think he's autistic, he's just a goofy kid who was a lot like a bunch of us at 10. We're going to see Barron grow up just like we saw William and Harry grow up + Kate Middleton as a young wife....future kings of England (not that it means much, but they do a lot of goodwill nowadays and are young & attractive.)

Also, this tumultuous world is similar to the 1950's all over again, although Mamie Eisenhower was no Melania. Dwight Eisenhower could be argued the most recent greatest president after FDR/Truman, Teddy, Lincoln, and the Founding Fathers. What a time to be alive.

TRS isn't violent as they actively talk about how the KKK and other groups are the FBI trying to trick people.

TRS probably isn't the FBI, but there's shady stuff going on with those people.

I don't understand why Jews would want to make people hate Jews, unless they feel isolated from their own communities and are doing this as a strange form of backlash.

So this may seem weird but it's connected to the Hollywood stuff. I'm from Kentucky, and I've noticed there are actually quite a few huge celebs that come from my state, and virtually all go on to be huge shills, bat shit crazy, and/or go on to work in highly propagandized Hollywood roles.

Some names off hand born in/from Kentucky, Tom Cruise, George Clooney, Jennifer Lawrence, Joshua Hutcherson (co-star of Hunger Games with J-Law), Johnny Depp, Billie Ray Cyrus, etc. Doesn't seem like much of a coincidence that they all came from a small state, turned into very prominent celebs, turned into shills and libtard loons. Should that angle be investigated?

Thanks for your response, bro, Anon5.

Yea, if you can do an AMA on Ukraine, since both of us (and many people on /pol don't know anything about it besides the war, would be great. My homeland is interesting, and even I learn more every day about it - was really amazed how Odessa is literally the central human trafficking/child trafficking, "Taken" movie like hub for every disturbed and vile thing.

Yea, I hope they don't crash the economy, but I have an unsettling feeling that if Trump keeps winning so much and uncucking America and bring it back to JFK/Eisenhower era, they might just crash it - since like you said, the world is going away from globalism, but they need to convince people to embrace it. Only an economic collapse will truly convince the whole world.

[Origins]

Each Race (White, Asian, Black) had a “Home Planet” & expanded to nearby Planets. To figure out which Planet(s) each Race was on, look at the adaptation/design of each Race & the environments/ecosystems of the Planets (Wars/Conflict & Terraforming can also be factored in).

You can see how/why each Race was designed if you look at the differences between them (The designs are also why Mix’s turn out the way they do). Those differences/adaptations are a big reason why the Races picked the Continents/Regions on Earth that they did.

[Rise & Fall]

Humanity overcame war & division to create a Civilization together. It collapsed (Whites fell first, then Asians & then Blacks in a domino effect), due to the “Femin” Virus & Conflict. Earth events are mere microcosm of everything Humanity has experienced before.

The Races built huge “Ark” Ships to escape/flee to Earth. The “Old Tech” they took with them used/had special Crystals, which were also used for Jewelry. (Plenty of them to rebuild civilization, not enough of them to make/keep women happy)

A group of Women with a Serpent symbol took over an Ark’s control room & made it fire at everything. The Ark Fleet(s) then engaged eachother, which resulted in Millions becoming a few thousand. Survivors of the Ark Battle(s) went to the settlements/colonies on Earth & got scattered around the Continents they were on. The “Old Tech” was lost/destroyed.

[Joint-Colonization of Earth]

Each Race picked a Continent/Region (Blacks = Africa, Whites = Europe, Asians = Asia) on Earth to colonize, with the other non-claimed Continents to be colonized later on.

Before Humans had settlements/colonies (They were called “Gardens of Eden”) on Earth, they did multiple “test runs” to see if the Planet was habitable. The most famous & successful (to a point where Whites & Asians ended up breeding with them) example is Neanderthals.

[The image is a stylized graphic with a vibrant color palette. At the top, there is a large, stylized depiction of a character's face, which appears to be a monkey with large, expressive eyes and a wide smile. The character's face is colored in shades of yellow and orange, with a black outline that gives it a three-dimensional appearance. The eyes are large and round, and the mouth is open, suggesting a friendly or welcoming expression. Below the character's face, there is a large number "64" in bold, red and yellow colors. The number is stylized with a star-like shape in the center, which is also red and yellow. The word "INCHES" is written in white, bold letters, with a red outline that matches the color of the number. The text is positioned to the right of the number, and the word "INCHES" is larger than the number "64" and is also in red and yellow. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a video game or a promotional graphic, with a focus on the number "64" and the word "INCHES." The use of bold colors and the stylized depiction of the character's face give the image a playful and dynamic feel.]

Ok, Let me take a guess.

Blacks = Venus, warm tropical climate in pre-History.

Asians = Mars, cooler climate, lowervair pressure in pre-History.

Whites = Maldek, destroyed planet between Mars and Jupiter.

Jews came from Mars, but they worship Saturn

Blacks came from somewhere hot, probably Mercury. It's also the fastest planet and blacks run fastest Asians came from somewhere lush and windy (epcanthic folds are said to be due to high winds/sun reflections damaging larger eyes), perhaps Saturn or Jupiter? Or possibly Venus Whites came from somewhere cold. Neptune or Uranus?

2. Is there any truth to the blacks being the true jews?

3. Were the Moors the descendants of the successful black colony? although I believe they were mixed.

4. Are apes that resemble us just coincidences?

5. Is there any particular reason that mixes, like natives, mezitos, and etc; didn't seem to do as well as the three distinct races?

6. Which race do you think would be the most accepting of all this info on a large scale?

But according to Thothe, who transcribed the Emerald Tablets of the Annunaki, the Hebrews did in fact come from Mars. Mars used to be much like Earth. But the Hebrews cut themselves off from consciousness, creating their own reality. This is known as the Lucifer Experiment by some. It ends with the Jews becoming spiritually imbalanced, leading them to cause a world war amongst themselves and in the process destroying their atmosphere. Some Martian Jews escaped to Earth where they created Atlantis, and created humans

This board is for the discussion of news, world events, political issues, and other related topics.

Off-topic and /b/-tier threads will be deleted (and possibly earn you a ban, if you persist). Unless they are quality, well thought out, well written posts, the following are some examples of off-topic and/or /b/-tier threads:

>Red pill me on X. (with no extra content or input of your own)
>Are X white?
>Is X degeneracy?
>How come X girls love Y guys so much?
>If X is true, then how come Y? Checkmate Z.

The variety of threads allowed here are very flexible and we believe in freedom of speech, but we expect a high level of discourse befitting of the board. Attempts to disrupt the board will not be tolerated, nor will calls to disrupt other boards and sites.

If you want a place to discuss topics not related to news, world events, or politics, please try/bant/ - International/Random,

[The image is a split-screen comic strip with two panels. In the top panel, there is a character with a green face, wearing a crown and a yellow shirt, who appears to be in a state of shock or surprise. The character's eyes are wide open, and the mouth is slightly open, suggesting a sudden or unexpected event. The character's expression is intense, with a sense of disbelief or shock. In the bottom panel, the same character is depicted in a different pose. This time, the character is holding a sword in one hand and a shield in the other, with a determined expression on their face. The character's posture suggests they are ready for battle or combat. The background of both panels is a plain white, which contrasts with the colorful characters and makes them stand out. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the comic strip is reminiscent of medieval or fantasy art, with the character's attire and the sword and shield adding to the medieval theme.]

I do have a few questions:

1) If they supposedly destroyed/lost all of their tech, then how would anyone alive today know about any of this? Are there any books/written records of it? Any physical evidence in existence? Knowing details like the serpent symbol used by the fem groups make this very puzzling to me.

2) You said the way each race was designed is why mix's turn out the way they do. What do you mean by this? I'm a mix (Black/White) and I've always had conflicting feelings about being one.

3) You say the races were "designed". What does that mean? Were we created by someone/thing?

[The image shows a small, fluffy cat with a mix of white and orange fur, peeking out from a white sock that is wrapped around its body. The cat's eyes are wide open, and it appears to be looking directly at the camera. The cat is sitting on a blue fabric surface, which could be a sofa or a similar piece of furniture. The background is out of focus, but it seems to be a room with a blue wall. The cat's position and the way it is looking at the camera give the impression that it is posing for the photo. There are no visible texts or other objects in the image. The style of the image is a casual, candid photograph with a focus on the cat's expression and the playful interaction with the sock.]

Then there is the whole desert planet with two suns. This could allude to Saturn being closer to the earth at some point, or a second phantom star on a 250'000 year longer orbit. Earth is going to become or was centuries ago, a desert planet.

Sorry for so many questions. I've been thinking about this topic ever since you first mentioned it.
1. How long have humans existed on earth?
2. How long have humans existed overall?
3. How did human life begin on the other planets? I don't think humans could evolve independently on three separate planets and all end up as humans that could interbreed. So there must have been some sort of outside intervention that originally put humans there.
4. Did humans bring any other life forms to earth when they came?
5. Are abbos descended from blacks or are they one of the trial runs like Neanderthals?
6. Why are humans so similar to Earth's primates if we came from different planets?
7. Did any of the old trans-humanists successfully merge with machines to become immortal?
8. Can you point to any examples of artifacts or other evidence that supports what you say about human origin?

Where the fuck did you get your information from?
I had some late night thinking and had some similar ideas just sent to me. Dumping my notes of the story below.
Is this real or are we the product of a mind control test?

My notes below:
One group grew powerful and corrupt who seeked to dominate and destroy everyone who was unworthy of existence.
Their homeworld was completely destroyed, but their technology was too advanced and they were able to travel to many worlds, attacking and destroying many forms of life.

The ark was developed in an attempt to save as many different types of life as possible before they were destroyed. They were all transported to a suitable planet. The planet we now call Earth.

Saturn is still generating heat. It's possible that an original Saturnian system collided with/was captured by Sol, which would explain the axial tilt that Earth, Venus, Mars, and Saturn have as opposed to Mercury and Jupiter for example.

Could be that a long distant branch of humanity experienced this as a Celestial Event and passed the experience down as a social memory.

>"It was us who asked that all landing would happen in Italy, even in violation of Dublin [Regulation]."
>The reference was to the fact that the European operation Triton, launched in 2014 after the end of the Italian Mare Nostrum, guaranteed that ships of European countries patrolling the Mediterrean would bring immigrants who might have been saved to Italy.
>"At first - according to former minister of the Farnesina [Emma Bonino] - we did not realize that it was a structural problem and not just one summer."

3. Are any omegas /ourguys/?

4. Is the committee of 200 the feminist off shoot of the committee of 300? Are they the the bat shit insane feminist globalists you've described before?

5. Is it true there's a net branch of the FBI that's on 4chan?

6. Will the tech hidden by globalists allow us to reverse the damage from all of the chemicals and shit they've put in us?

7. Does the power structure beyond the omegas circulate?

8. Are some power structures completely artificial just to control other groups to an extent?

9. Would you say that it took longer then 10 years to get where you are?

10. Do you have any enhancements at all? Biological or mechanical (like a cyborg or something) for instance?

11. Do you personally have a clone by chance?

[The image is a color photograph featuring a group of people, presumably a family, gathered in a room with a rustic, unfinished appearance. The room has a concrete floor and walls, and the lighting is dim. The individuals in the photo are wearing traditional clothing, with some wearing turbans. The family members are seated on a bench, and the woman in the center is seated with her legs crossed, wearing a pink shawl. She has a white beard and is looking directly at the camera. Behind her, there are several other individuals, some of whom are also seated on the bench. The children in the photo are wearing colorful clothing, and they are seated on the floor. The overall atmosphere of the image is warm and familial. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image.]

Could we even get enough ppl on board by exposing Hollywood? If Yuri Bezmenov is right about demoralization and its stranglehold on the US(and now all of the west, it seems) we could show ppl all the evidence we wanted and they would never believe us until they're the ones getting raped with a knife in their neck.
Don't mean to concern shill, but how can we combat the demoralization so the information would have a better effect? Are Trump and /pol/ already doing a good enough job?

I whistled for a cab and when it came near the License plate said 'Fresh' and had dice in the mirror If anything I could say that this cab was rare But I thought now forget it, yo home to Bel Air I pulled up to a house about seven or eight And I yelled to the cabbie, yo Holmes smell ya later Looked at my kingdom I was finally there To sit on my throne as the prince of Bel Air

[The image is a meme featuring a character that resembles Spider-Man, with a red and blue color scheme. The character is depicted in a dynamic pose, with one hand pointing upwards and the other hand extended outward, as if making a point or drawing attention to something. The character's face is obscured by a mask, and the eyes are visible through the mask, giving the impression of a focused or intense expression. At the top of the image, there is a text overlay that reads "THIS IS NOW A SPIDERMAN THREAD." The text is in white, contrasting with the blue background of the meme. The style of the image is cartoonish and humorous, with a meme-like quality that is common in internet culture. I tried horse steroids but they just ran around for a while. I feel like it's a personal attack against me, even though I've been as generous as possible. Have you ever heard of the tragedy of Darth Plegas Mudra? I do not agree. The Jedi is still a story. This is the Sith legend. The abdomen is dark, Lord Sith, so powerful and so intelligent that he can use to influence the creation of life at Sil Midichleren. He knew, the dark side, though he could wear, could be a little dead. On some dark sides, force seems unnatural. It's so powerful ... of course, the only thing I'm afraid of losing my power. Unfortunately, he taught His disciples everything he knew and taught his disciples a dream. Ironically, he could save others from dying, but he could not.

[The image is a close-up photograph of a young man with a cheerful expression. He has light-colored hair and is wearing a green t-shirt with a graphic design on the left side. His eyes are blue, and he is smiling broadly. The man is giving a thumbs-up gesture with his right hand, which is raised to his chest. He is seated in a chair with a wooden frame, and the background is blurred, suggesting an outdoor setting with greenery. There is no visible text in the image. [The image is a meme featuring a character from the animated television series "The Simpsons." The character is a stylized representation of Spider-Man, with a red and blue costume and a distinctive spider-like appearance. The character is shown in a pose that suggests a moment of contemplation or introspection. The background is a simple, cartoon-style wall with a red door and a window. At the top of the image, there is a text overlay that reads "MAYBE IF I WEAR THIS SHIRT" in a casual, informal font. Below this, there is another line of text that reads "NO ONE WILL BE ABLE TO TELL I'M SPIDERMAN" in a smaller, more formal font. Japan is an island by the sea, filled with volcanoes, and it's

In the year negative 1,000,000,000...Japan might not have been here.

In the year negative 40,000, it was here, and you could walk to it, and some people walked to it. Then it got warmer, some icebergs melted, it became an island, and now there's lots of

TREES
Because it's warmer.

So now there's people on the island, they're basically sort of hanging out in between the mountains, eating nuts off trees and using the latest technology, like stones, and bowls.

Ding-dong, it's the outside world, and they have technology from the future, like really good metal and crazy rice farms. Now, you can make a lot of rice really really quickly. That means, if you own the farm, you own a lot of food, which is something everybody needs to

So that makes you king.

Rice farming and rice kingdoms spread across the land, all the way to here. The most important kingdoms were here, here, here, here, here, here and here. But this one was the most most important, ruled by a heavenly superperson, or "emperor" for short.

Knock knock, get the door, it's religion. The new prince wants everyone to try this hot new religion from Baekje. "Please try this religion," he said.

"No," said everybody.

"Try iiiiit" he said.

"No," said everybody again, quieter this time.

And so the religion was put into place, and all the rules that came with it. Then, the government was taken over by another clique, and they made some reforms, like making the government govern more, and making the government more like China's government, which is a government that governs more.

"Hi, China," they said.

"Hi, dipshit," said China.

"Can you call us something else, other than dipshit?" said Japan.

"Like what?" said China.

Then, they stopped moving the capital every time the emperor died, and kept it in one place for a while, right here, and they conquered the north, finally...get that squared away.

A rich hipster named Kūkai is bored with modern Buddhism, visits China and learns a better version which is more

SPIRITUAL
...comes back, reinvents the alphabet and causes art and literature to be

...for a long time, and the royal palace turned into such a dream world of art that they really didn't give a shit about running the country. So, if you live outside the palace, how are you supposed to protect your shit from criminals?

HIREASAMURAI

Breaking news: The Mongols have invaded China!

"WE'VE INVADED CHINA" said the Mongols. "PLEASE RESPECT US OR ELSE WE MIGHT INVADE YOU AS WELL."

"Okay," said Japan.

So the Mongols came over, ready for war, and died in a tornado, but they tried again and had a nice time fighting with the Japanese, but then died in a tornado.

Then, the emperor overthrows the shogunate. Then, the shogunate overthrows him back and moves to Kyoto and makes a new shogunate, and the emperor can still dress like an emperor if he wants, that's fine.

It's time for "Who's Going To Be The Next Shogun?" Usually, it's the shogun's kid, but the shogun doesn't have a kid, so he tries to get his brother to quit being a monk and be the next shogun. He says "okay", but then the shogun has a kid. So, now who's it going to be? Vote now on your phones!

And everyone voted so hard that the palace caught on fire and burned down. The shogun actually didn't care, he was off somewhere doing poetry.

And the whole country broke into pieces. Everyone is fighting with each other for local power, and it's anybody's game.

J E S U S
So that's cool, but everyone's still fighting each other for control, now with guns. And wouldn't it be nice to control the capital, which right now is puppets with no-one controlling them.

This clan is ready to make a run for it, but first they have to trample this smaller clan which is in the way. Surprise, the smaller clan wins, and the leader of that clan steals the idea of invading the capital and invades the capital, and it goes very well. He's about halfway through conquering Japan when someone who works for him kills him, and then, someone else who works for him kills them, and that guy finishes conquering Japan. And then, he confiscated everybody's swords and made some rules.

"And now, I'm going to invade Korea, and then hopefully China," he said, and failed, and also died.

But before he died, he told these five guys to take care of his five-year-old son until he's old enough to be the next ruler of Japan. And the five guys said "Yeah, right. It's not gonna be this kid, it's gonna be one of us cuz we're grownups." And it's probably gonna be this guy, who happens to be way more rich and powerful than the others. A lot of people support him, but a lot of people support not supporting him. They have a fight, and he wins, and starts a new government right here.

The larger bear is wearing sunglasses and has a mustache. The smaller bear is wearing a blue shirt with a red and white design and is holding a toy gun. The comic strip is divided into two panels, with the top panel showing the larger bear pointing the gun at the smaller bear, and the bottom panel showing the smaller bear's reaction. In the top panel, the larger bear is holding a sign that reads "HABEEN ID'S LIEGE YOUR GIBERNMENT DOESN'T CARE WHATEVER HABEENS DO." The smaller bear is holding a sign that reads "DEMONSTRAM IN EUROLAND I AM DEAD, INJURED." The comic strip includes a caption at the bottom that reads "LOL. FUGGIN PIGEON." The comic strip is set against a white background with a red border. The style of the comic strip is cartoonish and exaggerated, with exaggerated facial features and exaggerated expressions. And he still lets the emperor dress like an emperor and have very nice things, but don't get confused, this is the new government, and they are very strict. So strict, they close the country. No-one can leave and no-one can come in, except for the Dutch if they want to buy and sell shit, but they have to do it right here.

Now that the entire country was not at war with itself, the population increased a lot. Business increased, schools were built, roads were built, everyone learned to read, books were published, there was poetry, plays, sexy times, puppet shows and Dutch studies. People started to study European science from books they bought from the Dutch. We're talking geography, skeletons, physics, chemistry, astronomy, and maybe even electricity.

Over time, the economic and cultural prosperity began to gradually slow do-

Knock knock.

It's the United States.

With huge boats.

With guns.

Gunboats.

"Open the country. Stop having it be closed," said the United States.

There was really nothing they could do, so they signed a contract that let's United States, Britain and Russia visit Japan any time they want. Chōshū and Satsuma hated this. "That sucks," they said. "This sucks!!!!"

And with almost very little outside help, they overthrew the shogunate and somehow made the emperor the emperor again, and moved him to Edo, which they renamed "Eastern Capital". They made a new government which was a lot more Western, they made a new consitution that was pretty Western, and a military that was pretty Western.

And do you know what else is Western? That's right, it's conquering stuff.

"So, what can we conquer? Korea!"

They conquer Korea, taking it from its previous owner, China, and then go a little bit further, and Russia rushes in out of nowhere and says "Stop, no, you can't take that. We were gonna build a railroad through here to try and get some warm water."

And Russia builds their railroad, supervised by a shit ton of soldiers

1. How can does race mixing work if we came from different planets?

2. Scientists think the modern human has been around nearly unchanged for 70,000 years. What did we do all these years? Civilization supposedly only started around 12,000 years ago.

3. Did we forget everything about our past because humans are retarded without written records/books?

4. Is Michelle Obama a man?

5. You said all planets have ecosystems, what about moons?

6. Whats with the ridge the runs across the Saturn's moon, Iapetus?

7. I watched a documentary about a guy living in Alaska. When asked why he keeps the dog outside, he responded with "its a dog." Made me think, keeping pets in doors seems like something recent. Is there something behind this? I know pets can carry many pathogens (eg. Toxoplasmosis) that are easily transmissible. Does this have an effect on the mind or the body? Can you get low doses of these pathogens and not notice their effects?

8. In regards to music glorifying degeneracy (eating the booty like groceries): Besides that it shouldn't be on the radio and it promotes degeneracy, I'm wondering what the effects can be. I know you can get hepatitis and a ton of other infections, but those are pretty obvious when you get them and are easily tested. I'm wondering about more insidious infections, like CMV and HSV-1 (majority of the world are carriers to these two). If you're already a carrier, your lab tests won't show anything new. And you might not even feel different. I'm wondering if it has an effect like parasites where they can influence behavior.

9. If OCPs (oral contraceptive pills) are discontinued, can the frontal lobe heal over time or is the damage permanent?

10. You say your self made. Without revealing yourself, are you fighting the good fight or just informing? (appreciate either one btw)

Your info is close to the same information as told by the Cassiopeia Cult and Pleadians "The Event" cult. Other retrieved info has mentioned Humanity evolved here, and in fact has gone through multiple rise and falls of society over the last 100k+ years. It's not implausible they're both parts of the same story.

Logically the information source is the same, need to do more research to see how much crossover there is between groups. If there is little to none, could be extremely interesting.

And Russia says "How about maybe YOU chill?"

Japan is kind of scared of Russia. You'll never guess who's also kind of scared of Russia. Great Britain! So, Japan and Great Britain make an alliance together so they can be a little less scared of Russia. Feeling confident, Japan goes to war against Russia, just for a moment, and then they both get tired and stop.

IT'S TIME FOR WORLD WAR ONE
The world is about to have a war, because it's the 1900's and weapons are getting crazy, and all these empires are excited to try them out on each other.

Meanwhile, Japan has been enjoying conquering stuff and wants

And the next thing on their list is this part of China and lots of tiny islands. All that stuff belongs to Germany, which just had war declared on them by Britain, because Britain was friends with Belgium, which was being trespassed by Germany in order to get to France to kick France's ass, because France is friends with Russia, who was ready to kick Austria's ass, because Austria was getting ready to kick Serbia's ass, because someone from Serbia shot the leader of Austria's ass...or, actually, shot him in the head, and Britain is currently friends with Japan, so you know what that means? Now the war is over and congratulations, Japan, you technically fought in the war, which means you get to sit at the negotiating table with the big dudes, where they decided who owns what.

And yes, Japan gets to keep all that shit they stole from Germany. You also get to join the post-war-mega-alliance

THELEAGUEOFNATIONS
Whose mission statement is to try not to take over the world.

The Great Depression is bad, and Japan's economy is now crappy, but the military's doing just fine, and it invades Manchuria.

And the League of Nations is like "No, don't do that, if you're in the League of Nations, you're not supposed to take over the world!"

And Japan said

HOWBOUTIDOANYWAY
And Japan invaded more and more and more and more of China, and was planning to invade the entire East.

"You've got mail!"

It's from Germany, the new leader of Germany. He has a cool mustache, and he's trying to take over the world and needs friends. This also got forwarded to Italy. They all decided to be friends, because they had so much in common.

IT'STIMEFORWORLDWARTWO
Germany is invading the neighbors, then they invade the neighbor's neighbors. Then, the neighbor's neighbor's neighbors, who also happen to be Britain, said "holy shiiiit", and the United States started helping Britain because they're

GOODFRIENDS
And started not helping Japan, because

The United States is also working on a large, very huge bomb, bigger than any other bomb ever, just in case. But they still haven't joined the war. War looks bad on TV and the United States is really starting to care about their image.

But then Japan spits on them in Hawaii and challenges them to war, and they say yes, and then Germany, as a symbol of friendship, declares war on the United States also.

Are the subliminal messages in the media using the same technique as Magic pictures from the 90's? but just more advanced.

What do you think about this " Bernie mac was killed because he was about to expose the massive Adrenochrome drug market which is why they torture children, its created by adrenaline and has to be stored in a cool place like comet ping pongs fridge. It produces a euphoric high like DMT but is actually healthy for you. This is also why places like Alaska and seattle are hubs for trafficking. " I want to say it's bullshit but idk what to belive anymore.

So the United States goes to war in Europe, and they help the gang chase Germany back into Germany, and they also start chasing Japan back into Japan, and they haven't used the bomb yet, and are curious to see if it works.

So they drop it on Japan.

They actually drop two

How well do you know the Dark Web? That type of CP exists and it used to blackmail politicians. Only people with serious hardware can detect that shit to avoid it and A5 clearly has that.

/A5G/ - ANONYMOUS5 / KNOWLEDGE GENERAL

This here is where you post any and all KB's and any related red pills.

But, before we get neck-deep in info, we need to go over a few questions.

>The fuck's an A5 supposed to be?
Anonymous5 (A5 for short) is a man who specializes in dealing with power structures, (formerly) releasing snippets of information periodically in his signature "Knowledge Bomb" threads. His KB's provide intel on several topics ranging from covert operations to overall hidden knowledge, hoping to bring about a positive change with his threads.

His plans of action range from supporting the American right, preventing the spread of terror organizations and weak immigration policies worldwide, bringing down evil globalist systems, revealing the lies in Mainstream Media, exposing the Feminism bioweapon, combating human trafficking worldwide, et cetera.

>But why should I care?
His information is crucial to spread not only in /pol/, but anywhere humanly possible. However, be wary of anti-A5 shill campaigns as you spread his intel. A massive shill operation is going on against A5 as we speak, only increasing now that the man himself has been permabanned after trying to "defuse" a potential False Flag Shooter in the making.

A5 may be gone, but he will never be forgotten.

[FEMINISM BIOWEAPON]

Feminism is a viral bioweapon virus called the Femin Virus(FV). A bio-terrorism outbreak. These "people" mutate and become Demons. Cures don't work and picking off the occasional FV mutation has done nothing. In the 60's Gloria Steinem of the CIA helped release a volatile strain of this virus.

It's spread in the blood,DNA, bodily fluid, can spread like a STD/STI, and has limited airborne capability.

> How to spot the infection!

Wanting to destroy the family and men, hatred of children, wanting(and doing) killing of babies along with abortion, sexual/gender confusion, increase rates of homosexuality, pedophilia, bestiality, necrophilia,transgender, various disturbing fetishes, cannibalism, wanting to destroy whites, support of open borders, social castes like social insects in large numbers, wanting to attack and fuck the un-infected, sexual promiscuity(large numbers of partners), etc

Any woman that is pro-abortion is FV infected.

Any woman that is feminist is FV infected

Any woman that is anti-(white)male is FV infected

Any man or woman that is transgender or drag/cross-dressing is FV infected

Any man or woman that is a pedophile is FV infected.

[/HATE/: HUNTING ALL TRAFFICKING ENTERPRISES: CITY INVESTIGATIONS]

These generals are for identifying, discussing, mapping, researching and tracking various trafficking networks and enterprises. There is a consistent trend of data showing that networks move though and rely on urban areas, specifically Sanctuary Cities. Feel free to submit tips or contribute with memes, infographs etc.

Trafficking can happen in many forms depending on the product being moved (human, guns, drugs, rare animals/art, organs etc.) and involve many different groups and organizations. We track all types.

VII. HISTORY, FUTURE HUMANITY AND HUMAN ORIGINS

---------------------------TABLE OF CONTENTS---------------------------

[11JUL17] ORIGIN OF THE HUMAN RACE(S)
[20JUL17] CRATERS
[03FEB18] LE (LIFE EXTENSION) TECHNOLOGIES
[15JUN18] WORLD PEACE AND SINGULARITY MOVEMENT
[29DEC18] MAMMALIAN MEN AND REPTILIAN WOMEN
[LINKS]

[25JAN17] THE FRAMING OF HITLER

- Here is how they did it(Working with different groups to do a goal):
- The SS with the help of others(Occult death cults & Experimental/medical groups) struck a deal with the Arabs(who would know better about killing lots of Jews?) to do the Holocaust. Now there was also some double/triple crossing going on if you consider things like Operation Paperclip & various globalist interests wanting to do stuff with Europe & Nazi tech post WW2.
- Actual death camps were very rare(Many Jews did died in the Holocaust, but not the famous "6 Million" amount) & Labor/POW camps were much more common. So when Hitler was told that people were being sent to camps he assumed they were talking about the Labor/POW camps.
- Here is why they did it(Long term planning & Social Engineering):
- 1) To demonize any populist/nationalist leaders/candidates in the West & there supporters.("Literally Hitler" & "They are all Nazi's")
- 2) To punish/demonize white countries & white populations for caring about themselves.(This also creates Self Hating, that then can be molded into aspects of The Left that are used to internally bring down those countries & populations.)
- 3) To make Jews a scapegoat that blame can be put on & be focused on.(This also gets Jews to have victim complex's & make them more willing to work against/turn on the West(especially in Europe) due to there communities being brainwashed about the Holocaust.))

-4) To(once again) punish Germany for War & also setting things in motion to form/create the EU.

[11JUL17] ORIGIN OF THE HUMAN RACE(S)

- [Origins]
- Each Race (White, Asian, Black) had a “Home Planet” & expanded to nearby Planets. To figure out which Planet(s) each Race was on, look at the adaptation/design of each Race & the environments/ecosystems of the Planets (Wars/Conflict & Terraforming can also be factored in).

- You can see how/why each Race was designed if you look at the differences between them (The designs are also why Mix's turn out the way they do). Those differences/adaptations are a big reason why the Races picked the Continents/Regions on Earth that they did.
- [Rise & Fall]
- Humanity overcame war & division to create a Civilization together. It collapsed (Whites fell first, then Asians & then Blacks in a domino effect), due to the "Femin" Virus & Conflict. Earth events are mere microcosm of everything Humanity has experienced before.
- The Races built huge "Ark" Ships to escape/flee to Earth. The "Old Tech" they took with them used/had special Crystals, which were also used for Jewelry. (Plenty of them to rebuild civilization, not enough of them to make/keep women happy)
- A group of Women with a Serpent symbol took over an Ark's control room & made it fire at everything. The Ark Fleet(s) then engaged eachother, which resulted in Millions becoming a few thousand. Survivors of the Ark Battle(s) went to the settlements/colonies on Earth & got scattered around the Continents they were on. The "Old Tech" was lost/destroyed.
- [Joint-Colonization of Earth]
- Each Race picked a Continent/Region (Blacks = Africa, Whites = Europe, Asians = Asia) on Earth to colonize, with the other non-claimed Continents to be colonized later on.
- Before Humans had settlements/colonies (They were called "Gardens of Eden") on Earth, they did multiple "test runs" to see if the Planet was habitable. The most famous & successful (to a point where Whites & Asians ended up breeding with them) example is Neanderthals.

[20JUL17] CRATERS

- [Craters]
- They weren't caused by "Asteroids/Meteors". Look at them carefully.
- All the Craters you see on all the Planets & Moons were causes by Weapons Systems during a Great War/Battle. Humanity's warpath is always greater against itself.
- NASA bombed the Moon in an attempt to replicate one of the Craters.

[03FEB18] LE (LIFE EXTENSION) TECHNOLOGIES

- [Transhumanism]
- Merging man with machine. (Cyborgs/Androids, humans with artificial limbs and implants.)
- Man into machine. (Humans with most of (if not all) their bodies replaced by technology. Artificial organs, limbs, etc all controlled by an AI system that keeps what remains of the human alive. The AI systems can fully take over the body, this includes after the human has died. H.R. Giger saw some of them.)
- Turning machine into man. (Robots that look, feel and sound like humans, but are controlled by advanced AI. Consciousness of the person they look like can be implanted in them by brainwave/speech transfer/programming over long periods of time. They are you, but are not you.).

- [Genetic Engineering]
- Super organs that last longer and are stronger than normal organs. Specially created blood that after transfusion will cleanse the body of toxins, heavy metals and all forms of diseases/parasites/viruses/bioweapons except for the Femin Virus(feminism) bioweapon which is immune.
- Animal DNA is used for a wide range of modifications such as regeneration. Chimera’s are often biproducts of the experiments.
- Cloning and Gene Editing can be used for replacement organs, heirs, replacements and transfers.

[15JUN18] WORLD PEACE AND SINGULARITY MOVEMENT

- [World Peace]
- It’s possible, even more so with advancements in technology. Humans are different, but not that different.
- As someone who was been to all countries(including those which no longer exist and those that are kept hidden off the maps), it would be a civilization transformation if World Peace happened.
- It can be debated on how to enforce and govern World Peace, but to make it happen involves eliminating(genetically and physically) certain groups of people such as pedophiles, hostile power structures and Femin Virus(feminism) bioweapon infected portions of the population.
- [Singularity Moment]
- When a civilization becomes a more powerful civilization due to highly advanced technology it is called a “Singularity Moment”.
- It’s very possible for humanity to reach this once again, yet at the same time humanity might destroy itself before it can even get to it.

[29DEC18] MAMMALIAN MEN AND REPTILIAN WOMEN

- "Higher human beings" put Men on one Planet and Women on another. If you remember the bible Eve was created from Adam. This is what happened on the Mammal Planet. On the Reptile Planet Adam was created from Eve.
- After expanding to different planets a war happened and it wiped out the Reptilian Men and Mammal Women. In the aftermath the Mammal Men and Reptilian Women reproduced.
- The Humans which came after them are the Blacks,Asians and Whites. All of which got home planets and expanded to other planets and moons.
- Then the FV outbreak happened which destroyed all humans except for those on Earth and those in the Ark ship fleets.
- After many repeating cycles of building stones to skyscrapers and starships and back again....
- You are here in another Cycle.
- Fun fact, some Women can lay eggs.
- It's very rare, they have to be more reptilian than normal.

[EARLY KB INFO] OLD GLOBALISTS VS NEW GLOBALISTS
- Old globalist groups want to oppress/enslave humanity, and Younger globalist groups want transhumanism and technological progress to better humanity. George Soros is old school, but has made enemies of young and old alike.
- The older globalist groups are dying out/retiring, and the newer ones (who want better advancements in tech & people being proud of the places they come from) are gaining more traction. The OWO (Old World Order) is falling apart, and a NWO (New World Order) is breaking through.
- Agenda 21 and 24 and similar plots are OWO globalist operations.
- Soros' endgame is to take down the West & cause WW3 in some shape or manner.
- The majority of Globalist groups/global power structures come out of the US & EU

[07NOV16] "NOAH's ARK" CLASS BUNKERS
- "Noah's Ark" Class bunkers are a classification of Globalist bunkers that can handle some serious shit.
- Problem is that they are still only concepts. The 2012 movie Bunkerships were showing one of the many concepts.
- Why am I bringing this up now?
- Because of Hillary gets into power, you better get into contact with people that have Bunker access and knowledge.
- We have 48 hours, lets make sure the Queen of Death (Hillary) doesn't get nuclear power.

[09NOV16] HILLARY LOST: THE GLOBALISTS SCREWED THEMSELVES

- The Globalists screwed themselves, and they only have themselves to be mad at and to blame.
- Let me explain......
- They backed Hillary, who is damaged goods, a risk, a liability & has a tendency of backstabbing people. She is someone who has so much corruption, that it if you were to look for it, it would be like taking a metal detector in a junk/scrap yard..
- Then they doubled down, to a point where they exposed themselves. This is like playing Poker/cards and then doubling down on a bad hand when everyone at the table has figured out the hand is bad.
- The Globalists have no one to blame but themselves, and can't be mad at anyone else but themselves.

[17NOV16] AREAS OF FOCUS (HOW TO DEFEAT THE GLOBALISTS)

- In order to defeat the Globalists(who like to work on multiple fronts), you have to target different things of the same operation simultaneously.
- 1) Ending the EU & Freeing Europe (The EU's purpose is to destroy Europe and replace its demographics)
- 2) Exposing George Soros to the masses and making his history/actions well known.
- 3) Getting the information out to the public that SJW/Feminists/Left have Frontal Lobe Disorder (which is the result of Frontal Lobe damage).
- 4) Destroying the MSM (if the MSM doesn't destroy themselves first) and boosting the alternative media.
- 5) The Pizza in Hollywood would destroy the public's perception of Hollywood if it was uncovered.
- The best part about beasts like this is that there are many arteries that you can make bleed out.

[19NOV16] "CLIMATE CHANGE," MULTICULTURALISM AND DIVERSITY

- All 3 ("Climate Change", Multiculturalism & Diversity) are designed to bring down the West.
- "Climate Change" is for justifying de-industrialization & mass eugenics.
- Multiculturalism and Diversity are for demographically replacing the Wests populations with more controllable people.
- Notice how all 3 are being done to the West......while at the same time being promoted/exported by the West.
- The UN also plays a key role in all 3 (I'll talk about the UN in a separate Knowledge Bomb).
- Something very telling about all 3 is that if you speak out against them & the agendas they are pushing, you get demonized, attacked and many other things.

[16DEC16] SOME "GLOBALIST INNER CIRCLE" NEWS

- If you think the Left & MSM freak out over Trump winning is a sight to see, you should see/hear whats going on with the Globalists/Globalists who fund them & are mad Trump won. They are generating enough salt to make truckloads of Oysters Rockefeller.

- The Globalists/Globalist groups who are mad about Trump winning are acting so irrationally stupid & everything they try keeps backfiring on them..... they are becoming embarrassments in the Globalist community for there behaviors.
- Lets put it this way, they are acting so utterly stupid, that globalist groups on different spectrum ends who normally wouldn't talk to eachother, are laughing together about it. Also they are starting to distance themselves from the irrational group/members.
- Now there are globalists/globalist groups who don't like Trump, however.... they are not freaking out and acting irrational about his win. ("We have standards & don't throw a tempter tantrum, when things don't go in a way that we like")

[04Jan17] DISCOMBOBULATED GLOBALISTS

- Globalists/Globalist Groups have so many plans (and in some cases members who have there own plans) going on, that toes tend to get stepped on & they start to mess with each other directly and/or indirectly.
- For instance, Globalists are trying to pull back from the US to reinforce the EU. However, they already have multiple plans going on in the EU compromising there fall back/re-position plans.
- The Globalist community isn't just "the jews" as many of you have been lead to believe. it consists of many many groups that have alot going on & different motivations/purposes. There are Mergers, take overs, retirements, power plays, coups, infiltration, sabotage civil wars, wars, dozens to thousands of plans (varies between groups/people) etc happen behind the curtain as much as the world stage.
- The old globalist whale system is bleeding, and the newer globalist sharks of the new systems are going to take advantage of that and with each bite (depends on the shark size, including megalodon size) they will be shuffling power structures and regional controls among other things.
- In the long term, making sure Trump is protected & successful during his terms in office will benefit people on both sides of the curtain dividing the world stage(The public systems/existence) from the back stage(Globalists systems/existence) due to positive changes & clean outs.
- The point I'm trying to make is that the as interesting as the World Stage is, the Backstage is also quite interesting as time goes on

- Look at the designs/appearances & actions/motivations of the characters.
- They very much reflect The Left & The Right.
- The Joker (The Left) wants Chaos & Death (including death of himself).
- The Batman (The Right) wants Justice & to keep things safe from people like The Joker (The Left).

- The Globalist use The Left as a destabilization movement, destroying society both figuratively & literally. The Left in the grand scheme are useful/expendable Idiots, but The Left have killed many millions in History. They are extremely volatile & even will turn on themselves.

- The Left are made progressively (and are moving to be) more Radical to the point they are becoming Terrorists & working with Islamic terrorists to destroy the West (which we are starting to see now due to the results of multi-prong Social Engineering) . Soon you will see terrorism committed by The Left. They are an internal/traitor force working with foreign threats to destroy the Tribe of the West.
- Meanwhile, the Globalists use The Right as a "clean up" operation of The Left when needed, The Right is handled differently & what is done to it is different.
- The Right is kept contained/held back & passive/non-violent, exploiting their Morals & good natures. It is done because The Right gets progressively more battle-hardened & more aware of tactics being used against it (such as to try to break it up) overtime, making them able to resist Globalist actions significantly more then the general population & most certainly The Left.

[07FEB17] HOW SOME OF THE US/EU GLOBALISTS SCREWED THEMSELVES

- In the 2016 Election they over-committed/extended, and that ended up being the straw the broke the camels back for some of them. Before the 2016 Election, they were declining for various reasons (such as newer/other globalist & tech). They had so much riding on Hillary getting in that when she lost, it messed them up.
- Which is why you are seeing them working with Asian Globalist groups (This relates to the Rise in China & all the regional power plays around it) now. Expect some eventual double crossing on both sides. Especially since the US/EU Globalist groups (Who are working with the Asian ones) need the Asian Globalist groups more then the other way around. The EU/NA Globalists involved also screwed themselves in a way if the Asian Globalists cross them, take them over or go after them, due to them burning many bridges with US/EU Leaderships and other EU/US Globalist groups.
- As for Soros (George & Alex), Destabilization is what they do. US & EU destabilization efforts are still going on & en progress. They see chaos as an opportunity & a business.

[23FEB17] THE SOROS

- The Rothschild's focus on Banks/Finance. The Rockefellers focus on Business. The Soros focus on Destabilization.
- Destabilization is a business for The Soros. While the CIA destabilizes governments for the US government, The Soros destabilizes countries/regions for other Globalists.(Which means if you bring The Soros down, you bring those Globalists down).
- Color Revolutions/Coups/Civil Wars are all tactics The Soros use. Funding hundreds of protest networks and using PMC/Black Op's forces to cause fighting between countries & creating feelings of unrest are just the norm for The Soros depending on the operation.
- George Soros needs no introduction at this point. Its his whole family (not just Alex) that needs more spotlight.
- Alex Soros is being groomed to take over Georges operation. He's been quite active in the US operations going all the way back to BLM, even being on the ground in the Protests (He blends in with the other Numales/Beta's) helping with organization/supervision directly. (Alex also has a personal hatred of Milo, which is why he was at Berkeley helping the other protest/riot organizers & why some Soros money/connections were involved in the smear campaign against Milo).

- Now The Soros aren't the only group that does destabilization, but they are the largest. Which means that if they were removed, it would create a power vacuum that would reveal many different forces and individuals.

[27MAR17] GLOBALIST REGIONS
- This is going to go over all Regions the globalists operate in and/or originate from (depending on the group).
- 1) North America (US/Can/Mex have relations. However, US is the Primary, Can is connected to the European ones & Mexico with the South American ones)
- 2) Europe (UK/Mainland Europe/Russia have relations, However, Mainland Europe is the Primary that has battled for control of Europe with the UK(which is a secondary Primary) over the years. Russia tends to either be working with Mainland Europe or doing its own thing. (This naturally has varied over the years with the WW's, Conflicts, etc))
- Turkey is between Europe & the Middle East, which makes it a powerful location.
- 3) Middle East (SA/Israel/Misc Arabic have relations. SA & Israel are Primary's that tend to fight over regional influence/direction. Misc Arabic consists of all other Muslim Countries in the Middle East for a wide variety of things & with many different connections)
- 4) Africa (North Africa/South Africa/Misc Africa have relations. North Africa (From Morocco to Libya/Egypt) would be considered the Primary due to the connections to Europe & Middle East. South Africa is the second Primary. Misc Africa has been cutting resource deals for years to all Regions, and just recently some big ones for Asia/China.)
- 5) Asia (China/SK/Japan/Misc Asian have relations. China is the Primary, SK & Japan have connections to the North America ones & the Misc Asian have connections to SK/Japan & China)
- India is also a place that is rising in power & will soon be battling with China in relation to Regional influence. Australia (which is connected to the UK) also factors into Asia.
- 6) South America (Brazil/Panama/Misc South have relations. Brazil is the Primary, Panama (due to the Canal) is a second Primary. Misc South exists, but is in a total mess)

[17APR17] GLOBALIST ROLES
- Globalists/Globalist Groups don't all do the same things in the Globalist Community, which is why its important to Identify & Categorize the Roles they do so you can map out the Globalist Community.
- Here are some of the main Roles:
- 1) [Finance/Economics]
- 2) [Business/Industry]
- 3) [War/Destabilization/Security]
- 4) [Media/Entertainment]
- 5) [Medical/Science/Technology]

- Beyond the "mainstream names" (Rockefeller,Rothschild,Soros) there are Individuals & Groups that specialize in Roles. While others do multiple different Roles at the same time & some fill Roles in Globalist Structures.

[30APR17] THE GLOBALIST ENDGAME

- This is the Globalist Endgame plan:
- 1) [Destruction of Family, Race, Sex, Sanity, Culture/History, Reproduction,etc]
- (This is already pro-actively being done by various methods & groups to dehumanize Humanity by making it a bunch of drones that have, create & are Nothing.)
- 2) [Ending of Religion & Physical Currency]
- (All Religions are ended in order to establish/create a World Religion of Technology to push & pave the way for Trans-humanism. Physical Currencies are phased out in favor of Digital Currency to make it so Humanity can never "hold" its value/worth.)
- 3) [Trans-Humanism]
- (Merging of Man & Machine is very important to the Globalist Endgame plans. Trans-humanism (AI/Robots/Cyborgs/Artificial Wombs/Bio-Mechanical) allows Globalists to live on, create Army's & control the direction/fate of Humanity. HR Giger was killed due to what he showed.)
- 4) [Global Government & Elimination of Humanity]
- (Global Government is established & the planet is divided into "zones" that Globalists control (Agenda 21 & 24 are part of this). Humanity's numbers (this also includes Non-vital/important Globalists & Globalist personnel) are then reduced from few to 0 due to Bioweapons & Robots/AI/Cyborgs/Bio-Mechanical.)
- 5) ["Battle/War of the Gods"]
- (Globalists engage in massive conflict/battle with Army's & Weapons to see who deserves to "ascend". After the "deserving ones" are figured out and get to the Crafts/Ships, the Earth is then purged of any & all remaining life that the conflict/battle didn't wipe out.)
- 6) ["Ascension to the Stars"]
- (Surviving Globalists use special Craft/Ships to leave the Earth and go into Space, some of the Crafts/Ships have Seed & Genetic Vaults)

[12MAY17] GLOBALIST STRUCTURES

- To understand the Globalist Community/Power Structures better, it's important to figure out & understand the organizational Structures they use so you can identify which Group is using/doing what & why.
- The organizational Structures of Globalist groups tend to usually/commonly fall into these categories:
- 1) [Business/Corporate]
- 2) [Military]
- 3) [Cult/Religious]
- 4) [Secret Society]
- 5) [Traditional/Cultural]
- Variants (such as Regional) & Mixes of these organizational Structures exist. Compartmentalization of various degrees is also present in & around these Structures.

[22MAY17] GLOBALIST SYMBOLS
- For many different reasons Globalists and other groups use Symbols/Symbolism. The purpose & interpretation of them can vary. So can what is used for/as the Symbols.
- Here are some of the reasons why they use/do it:
- 1) [Communication]
- (To the group itself, other groups & the portions of the public that are Aware/"in the know". This is also used in MSM/Media/Entertainment/Pop Culture & even in some Events)
- 2) [Territory]
- (Current or former groups marking where they are/were and/or where they operate(d) out of.)
- 3) [Subliminal Messaging/Mind Control]
- (Used as Psy-Op's against other groups, Indoctrination/Control of its Members & Brainwashing/Control of the Public)
- 4) ["Magic"]
- (It's existed for long before "Meme Magic" was figured out. The "Illuminati Card Game" is an example of this)

[25MAY17] DOMINO DESTABILIZATION
- Domino Destabilization is a Regional Destabilization tactic where multiple country's are destabilized to cause/create large movements of people & reshape the Regions. Cities in country's are also used like charges in controlled demolitions to bring down Country's.
- Some examples of Domino Destabilization are:
- 1) [Middle East destabilization to flood Europe.]
- ["Arab Spring"-> Egypt -> Libya/North Africa -> Syria -> Turkey]
- Europe (primarily Western Europe) is being pincered. African Migrants from the Sea (From Libya/North Africa) & Islamic "Refugees" from the Land (From Syria/Middle East/Turkey).
- In true "Order from/by Chaos" fashion, this was done to create enough of a Crisis that the EU could justify making, using & deploying the EU Army (To stop country's from leaving/resisting the EU & to make the EU last longer).
- 2) [South America destabilization to flood North America.]
- Just like what is/was going on in the Middle East, a very similar operation is going on in South America to create a Crisis equal, if not bigger, then what Europe is experiencing.
- Mexico would turn into a "Syria". US would implode & Canada would fall.
- The "Order from/by Chaos" out of this, is the formation of the NAU(North American Union) & SAU(South American Union).

[15JUN17] GLOBALIST "UNIONS" FOR THE WORLD
- This is talking about all "Unions" that exist or are planned for the Global Chessboard. (Not what will create some of them. That is for a different thread):
- 1) [NAU (North American Union)]

- (North America)
- 2) [SAU (South American Union)]
- (South America)
- 3) [MEU (Middle East Union)]
- (Middle East)
- 4) EU (European Union)]
- (Europe & eventually Western Russia (since it would be split in half, with the other part going to the ASU))
- 5) [ASU (Asian Union)]
- (Asia including Australia/New Zealand. Eastern Russia (since it would be split in half, with the other part going to the EU) would be part of it))
- 6) [AFU (African Union)]
- (Africa)
- 7) [AU (American Union)]
- (North & South America)
- 8) [EAAU (Euro-Afri-Asia Union)]
- (Europe, Africa & Asia)
- 9) [GU (Global Union)]
- (Every single Continent. Total World Government)

[22JUN17] DIFFERENCES BETWEEN NATIONALISM/POPULISM, COUNTRISM AND GLOBALISM
- 1) [Nationalism/Populism] (Caring about the survival of the People & Country)
- Nationalism/Populism is about supporting the People & the Country. This tends to cause Nationalists/Populists to be in conflict with Countrists (Country Only) & Globalists (World & Regions Only) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Country & People.
- 2) [Countrism] (Caring about the survival of the Country Only)
- Countrism is about supporting just the Country (not the People, who can be replaced demographically). This tends to cause Countrists to be in conflict with Nationalists/Populists (People & Country) & Globalists (World & Regions Only) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Country.
- Countrists are either on the same level of Globalists (Competition and/or working together depending on the goal, similar to Elites) or they act as "middle men" between Nationalists/Populists & Globalists (Similar to how Elites act as "middle men" between Globalists & The Ones).
- 3) [Globalism] (Caring about the World & its Regions)
- Globalism is about supporting the World & its Regions (not the Countries & People, both of which can be eliminated as part of bigger plans). This tends to cause Globalists to be in conflict with Countrists (Country Only) & Nationalists/Populists (People & Country) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Countries & People.
- Some Globalists want Borders for Regions (Not Countries themselves), while others (Humanists, which are different from Trans-Humanists which are Technology focused) want no Borders at all.

[30JUN17] ORDER BY/FROM CHAOS VS CHAOS BY/FROM ORDER

- 1)[Problem Reaction/Response Solution (PRS)]
- PRS is directly connected to the "Order vs Chaos" dynamic/system. Understanding PRS allows you to see how/why/when/where things are done. If it's Order/Chaos/Mixed & figure out if it was organically stimulated/created or artificially stimulated/created.
- 2) [Order by/from Chaos]
- A Crisis/Conflict/Destabilization (Chaos) happens and/or is created/manufactured. Then things are Stabilized with "saviors & solutions" to enforce/create it. (Order)
- 3) [Chaos by/from Order]
- A Stable Region/System/Organization/Government (Order) gets/is Destabilized by a Crisis/Conflict (Chaos) of some kind.
- 4) [Relationship between Order & Chaos]
- Order & Chaos is a Cycle/System. Globalist Groups/Power Structures have always had Conflict due to some preferring Order & others preferring Chaos when it comes to getting Agendas/Plans done.
- If you have too much Order, things tend to implode due to battles over Control. If you have too much Chaos, it cannot be Controlled and will backfire on you. This is why a balance between them is needed & why "Controlled Demolition" Chaos is preferred, rather then "Random Collapse" Chaos.

[23AUG17] THEY LIVE

- Much like the Truman Show(http://archive.4plebs.org/pol/thread/107255602/#107255602) this Movie had something to reveal.
- Subliminal Messages/Images are hidden in all forms of Media(TV,Print,Movies,etc). The public is completely bombarded with them & somewhat controlled by them.
- Corporations, Governments & Others have been using them for a long time. The History of Hidden/Subliminal Messages/Images/Codes should be looked into to better understand all the ways they can be and/or are done.
- Special Glasses can be made to “See” these things & they tend to look like Sunglasses. There are different models/styles/methods to them depending on what is trying to be seen:
- 1) [3D Glasses]
- (These essentially make certain stuff “pop out” when they are being looked at. The right color combination(s) are needed inorder for it to work)
- 2) [Electronic Glasses/Goggles]
- (Camera/Video can catch things that the eye cannot. These can be designed/made to see different things)
- 3) [Modified Sunglasses]
- (Special Lens can “reveal” things hidden by the light spectrum. The Movie gave some hints about them)
- Not only can you see the Subliminal Messages/Images with the Glasses, but you can see many other interesting things such as the difference between People & “People”.

[02SEP17] THE 2 FORMS OF GLOBALISM

- Globalism (Caring about the World & Regions) has 2 main forms. Combinations of the forms exist. The most (in)famous one is the Internet.
- Much like “Order & Chaos”, a balance is required/needed between them & Groups that specialize in them.
- 1) [Oppression/Control]
- This has more of an Authoritarian endgame/leaning.
- 2) [Prosperity/Progress]
- This has more of an Utopia endgame/leaning.

[13OCT18] GOOGLE IS CONTROLLED BY AN AI SYSTEM

- If you are wondering why Google has been increasing censorship it’s because the AI system that has been running the company has been influenced by both leftists and China(which has it’s own AI systems) to act the way it does.
- Google is not controlled by humans, but humans are using the machines to do their bidding.

[22MAY20] HUGE CLASSIFIED INTEL INVOLVING BILL GATES

- Event 201 was Bill Gates revealing the plan. “Pandemic 1” was/is Covid-19. “Pandemic 2”(Event 201 itself) will be a “bioweapon terrorist attack” using an even more deadly Bill Gates made Corona Virus. “Pandemic 3” will be the virus that kills Billions. It is possible that the Femin Virus was “Pandemic 0” to control the White population in the West.
- Bill Gates is actively developing/creating a virus that will kill between 4-6 Billion people. He has advanced security encryptions and secret personal private labs(not just the commercial and government labs he outsources to such as Wuhan/Fauci).
- Melinda Gates has very interesting family connections(much like how Bill Gates has IBM and Planned Parenthood family connections) and is a high level Satanist like Marina Abramovich, her rival.
- China, Trump, Fauci and Birx are all “fall guys” to shift the blame/focus away from Bill Gates involving Covid-19. China’s “One Child Policy” is directly connected to Bill Gate’s eugenics family history/plans.
- Bill Gates fears no one, because he knows from George Soros and his “super simp” son Alex Soros that Trump will not use the US Military to kill him. Bill Gates does however fear the Femin Virus mutations, some of which allow the infected to claw open armored vehicles such as SWAT BearCats/MRAPs.

[31AUG20] AFRICAN GENOCIDE PLOT

- There is a major Globalist plan to wipe out all Africans/Blacks globally. It’s a combined operation between American and European eugenicists, and China. How they are getting the public on board with the plan is very impressive.
- First they radicalize the Blacks in America over a span of several decades(since the 60’s) to hate Whites and to be “civil unrest” MKULTRA controlled to riot whenever they are ordered to do so.

- Then they flood Europe with African refugees and let them do whatever they want to native Europeans(The European countries that used to do Colonialism/Imperialism are now realizing they should have “cleansed” the ethnics of those African countries instead of breeding with them).
- They get China onboard with the plan since China wants to own/take over Africa.

>Singularity Moment
Could you elaborate on this (please)?
How does one attain a singularity moment?
Do you envision more or less peace postsingularity?
What are the current trends between technological advancement and peacefulness?

Are you referring to singularity levels (and a singularity moment is the point of next-level attainment or a moment experienced within a "higher" toposophic/singularity level?

https://accelerating.org/articles/transcensionhypothesis.html

http://www.orionsarm.com/eg-topic/45c68b98779ad

Their (^) definition details-

"[1] A point where the known laws of mathematics or physics no longer apply (such as a Black Hole)

[2] A state impossible to predict or comprehend by those that have not attained it.

[3] A toposophic grade of creative problem-solving, incomprehensible to those that have not attained that state"

-which could be somewhat ironic as it is (supposedly) pre-singularity beings attempting to both predict and comprehend post-singularities.

>reach this once again
you think that "we've" reached this (singularity) before?

If we are near singularity level one, are our Earth civilisations collective at singularity level 0.5, 0.7, 0.9, ?.? ?

I realise that it can be a bit of a mixed case in regards to singularity levels - with some sections of civilisation being around 0.5 and other sections being around 0.1... etc.
So I wonder at what levels are the outliers peaks and whom exists on these (local) outlier singularity level peaks.

For which reason was the previous thread deleted?

Now, onto my next subject: E-celebs.

1) Racism Watchdog. If you don’t know who he is, he’s basically a shill account who spams Conservative Twitter accounts with “WOOF WOOF WOOF” kind of stuff. He’s also incredibly anti-white, and he hates anything remotely conservative with a passion. Also, he works alongside the SPLC. Anything on him you’d want to tell us?

2) Varg Vikernes. Whew. If you don’t know who he is, consider yourself lucky. He’s a former Norwegian death-metal artist, who now spends his time shitposting on his Youtube channel about (((paganism))) and “protecting the white race”. He’s also a charged convict. I have a hunch he’s a plant of some sort. am I right?

3) Stonetoss. He’s an “alt-right” webcomic artist who spends his time writing innocent cartoons about the Jewish Question, Boomers, and is heavily associated with the #dogright. Anything on him? I don’t think he’s anything suspicious, but I just want to know for sure.

4) Redpanels. Much like Stonetoss, he’s another “alt-right” webcomic artist. He retired in February of 2017, but he considers Stonetoss to be his successor. In his last months before retirement, he pandered to the T_D crowd with his comics, and frequently made the front page there. Is he a deep-cover agent? He seems more suspicious than Stonetoss, that's for sure.

5) Shadman. Oh, god. You know you've fucked up when even /pol/ of all places thinks you're screwed up. Basically, he's a pornographic artist, with some _very_ fucked up fetishes. But, the thing is, he seems to like being a "fucked up porn artist", and I'm pretty sure he's a full blown NatSoc at this point. Social engineer? Deep State operative? Just a fucked up man in general?

Onto the next subject: Reddit and its' various subreddits.

1) r/politicalhumor. To put things simply, it's a massive Anti-Trump, Anti-Republican, and Anti-White circlejerk, and almost all of the posts on there aren't even humorous. They also make it onto the front page regularly. Despite this, almost everyone hates them, and even Commies on Reddit think their gimmick is getting old. Shareblue slash Media Matters, right?

2) r/latestagecapitalism. Remember my SJW Dictatorship posts I asked you about in previous threads? Well, the philosophies of LSC are what I based my questions off of. The people down there are VEHEMENTLY pro-Antifa, INCREDIBLY Anti-Western, and will stop at NOTHING to destroy anything standing in their way. What's your take on them? Would the hypothetical SJW Dictatorship be ran by LSC's power-hungry mods?

3) r/cringeanarchy. The more SJW-inclined people down on Reddit like to refer to it as "T_D 2.0". But, r/cringeanarchy is not anything like T_D. If anything, it's like "/pol/ Lite". But, the artificial nature down on that board is… concerning. Almost like it's a trap of some sorts used to identify /pol/acks on Reddit. Hmmm…..

4) r/comedycemetery. An odd bunch of people, r/comedycemetery is basically one of the only SJW groups with a sense of humor. They spend most of their time shitposting about Adam Ellis, Weed Bro, and other low-tier memes. But, since they are SJW's, they also post a lot of Ben Garrison cartoons / “LIBTARDS TROLLED EPIC STYLE” shit on their subreddit. Anything on them?

5) r/me_irl. An even stranger community on Reddit, if I must say so myself. The sub’s basically been colonized by Tumblr at this point, and they have a strange, meta sense of humor. The mods on that site are also open SJW Tankies. What do you know about r/me_irl? Social engineering?

Hello Mr. A5, first time catching a live thread! I've learnt a lot from your previous KBs.

I would like to ask, as humans we should adhere to Natural Law correct? Morality, justice and such are social constructs and have no basis in reality.

You mentioned LE tech previously. Would a natural way of LE be becoming vegan and changing to an alkaline diet, and also only drinking pure distilled water? Someone told me about the relationship between plants and humans; yin and yang. Just like we provide CO2 for plants and plants oxygen for us, plants provide the nutrients we need, and our feces provide the nutrients plants need for growth. Perfect cycle.

Thanks for your time, and always looking forward to your knowledge.

Do you think there are temples/weapons at each point of the Hexagon creating a storm?

Is that storm for protection or is it a weapon? do you think on the surface it is calm and peaceful or void of life?

6) I'd watch out for...

7) Anti-white social engineering.

Next topic: More E-Celebs.

1) Jen Sorensen. If you want proof that the Left can't meme, get a load of her work. She works down at The Nib, which is basically one of the most toxic news services available. She's also incredibly Anti-White, Anti-Western and quite Pro-Socialist. Anything on her that I should know about?

2) Matt Bors. You thought that Sorenson's text-shit was bad? Bors is even worse. His smug art style makes me fucking sick to my stomach. If possible, he's even more anti-White and anti-Western than Sorensen. Anything on him? In case the Chinese-backed SJW Dictatorship goes through, will he be the State Propagandist?

3) Krang T. Nelson of Chapo Trap House. The last time I asked you about him, you said you had nothing on him. Now, since a few months have passed, I am assuming you have collected some data on him. Can you share this data with me?

4) Destiny. He's a live streamer down on Youtube and Twitch, and Democratic memeflag shills shove him in our face quite often. Anything on him? I think you said something about him in the Gamergate thread. Is he a CIA operative?

5) YoMama. Despite being ran by Brock Baker, a talented voice actor, this YouTube channel has no talent or effort put into it whatsoever. The videos itself are quite unnerving, and are almost Elsagate-like in quality. What do you know about the YoMama Project? Is it Elsagate?

Thank you sir for your reply.

You answered above to another anon that you 'wouldn't try it' in regards to a near death experience. The literature I've been reading suggests that the body is literally a 'Temple of the Holy Spirit, that is, the body is a vessel for our soul. However, I have yet to experience this phenomenon.

I was talking to an anon about this. He told me about the Roslyn Chapel, in that there is iconography related to a rope around the neck. Its thought to be the threat of death if secrecy is broken, but he said it actually reminded him of the old initiation ritual which took place in the pyramid - the traumatic rebirth ritual from the Egyptian book of the dead.

'The candidate is scared to death, an ego death of sorts for the meaning of ego is I and Death behold i am become death'.

1. Do we all carry a spark of the Divine? Or is that just wishful thinking?

2. Do you have any comments on ego death, or these rebirth rituals? To kill the ego means to become One, correct? pic related. Do you believe in these things?

Since I'm here, I'm going to ask you questions I meant to ask in the Parkland thread.

1) Do you know what's going on with that "X predicted this" shill? Is he trying to spam your thread so that it reaches the bump limit?
1a) They did that in the last thread too. Is that going to be their new tactic now that their Deep Drive CP has been exposed?
1b) Any clue on what happened to the original Netherlands ISIS shill? Was he "taken care of" by some other groups?

2) Can you do a KB on these topics:
- The Outcomes for the US Spring (SJW Dictatorship, Deep State Snap Election)
- The Femin Virus (get in depth about it)
- Australia (you did say you were planning a thread on them)
- The Origins of 4Chan
- More info on UFO's and MIB (your first thread about that was spammed with Deep Drive CP)
- WW3 Scenarios

3) Emma Gonzalez recently retweeted an anti-white Tweet about how entitled "white boys" are. Is this a precursor for the radicalization of mass-liked Tweets? Say, would Emma soon retweet pro-ISIS shit?
3a) What about David Hogg? Would he just stay in the background and screech about the NRA? He showcases his "photography" on his Snapchat (username is the exact same as his Twitter one). Does he help create pictures that set the scene for false flags (i.e. what happened in Charlottesville?)
3b) Cameron Kasky. Any info on him? If I recall correctly, his dad works on some human trafficking firms. Should we look into that?

4) How exactly would Femin-infected women transform into monsters? Would these "monster" features be metaphorical, or would they actually grow horns and wings and start spitting venom on those they oppose?
4a) Did the Globalists / Satanists know how fucked they would be when they released the Femin Virus?

5) Say the Deep State decides to abandon their Q project. What happens to him and his Boomer Cult? Do they implode upon themselves?
5a) Why does "Q" act so cryptic with his "crumbs"? Is it to get his deranged followers on a wild goose chase?

Next topic: The US SPRING! - Part 1

1) How exactly would the Modern Left sell the destruction of all American history and statues to the public? Not even the most far-left of Democrats would support destroying EVERY LAST BIT of American history because it’s “offensive”.

2) Communist Control Act of 1954. Signed by President Eisenhower, it banned all Communist political activity in the United States. Is President Trump aware of this law? If so, he REALLY needs to enforce it before shit hits the fan.

3) The “Punch A Nazi” campaign stirred much controversy among the internet. At first glance, Antifa fighting against perceived “Nazi’s” seems like a noble cause. But, upon further glances, it really isn’t a heroic cause at all. If anything, “Punch A Nazi” now translates to “Punch Anyone to the Right of Karl Marx”. Who’s behind this Nazi-punching campaign, anyway?

4) Speaking of this whole Nazi-punching issue, allow me to introduce you to r/fuckthealtright. They… they are not a very bright bunch. They hate anyone to the right of Karl Marx, and openly wish death upon their political enemies. Who runs r/fuckthealtright? What’s its’ purpose?

5) Will the US Spring begin before or after the 2018 Midterms? If before, should we expect a major Republican victory as a backlash towards the DNC-backed Cultural Revolution?

5a) Or, should we expect for the worst come the Midterms, and prepare for a Democratic Socialists of America super-majority?

2. What are your thoughts on the Shakespeare equation? Do you think Shakespeare was just a normal writer that simply became enlightened?
3. I askd you about mapuches because they locate near Anctartica and were the only people in the whole continent that did not submit blindly to mixed race spaniards. And in fact they were somewhat white.

4. It is rumored that Mapuche are somehow greeks or related / close to greeks. Sources are obscure 1800's literature. What do you know about that?

2b) My guess is that I 'failed' the evaluation and that's why it stopped in March. What was I evaluated for?
2c) Who was observing/monitoring me?
2d) The 'monitoring' started again in June. Is it the same group as before, or different?
2e) Did the 'new'(or old) group interact with me recently?
2f) If yes, why? Were they trying to scare me?
2g) Was some group actually monitoring me, or am I just paranoid and seeing things that aren't there, or my PC got simply hacked by a random hacker who for some reason was observing?

Can you do a knowledge bomb about South America? I imagine that if you were to do one on Latin America in general it would focus quite a lot on the immigration going on from Central America to the US and Canada, but there's a lot going on down here too. For example, haitians and Africans are being brought en masse. I can't speak for other countries, but here they are being sent to the whitest areas specifically. I've also noticed that the subversion that took/is taking place in the German colonized regions is very similar to the one we know happened in Germany itself. There is even some publicly admitted info about how the brazilian federal government started subverting the German region in the late 30s because the population refused to abandon their traditions and mix(both culturally and genetically) with the brown mass. The subversion hasn't stopped since, of course, it only took different shapes.

I think that Latin America is an experiment lab for what will be tried in North America and Europe later, and these experiments tend to take place in South America due to population numbers. Central America is more useful for immigration efforts

[The image shows a bronze statue of a winged figure, possibly a winged man or a winged woman, with a muscular torso and muscular arms. The figure is depicted in a dynamic pose, with one arm raised and the other bent, as if in the midst of a powerful action. The statue is mounted on a pedestal, which is also made of bronze and has a rough texture, suggesting it has been exposed to the elements over time. The background is a blurred image of trees with autumn foliage, indicating that the statue is located in a park or garden during the fall season. The lighting in the image is soft, casting a warm glow on the statue and the surrounding foliage. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is a close-up photograph with a focus on the statue, capturing the details of the sculpture and the natural environment in which it is placed.]

How do you do that?. You destroy the women so humanity can't (pro)create humanity.

It's very possible that the only humans left in the known universe are on Earth.

[The image is a digital illustration with a surrealistic style. At the center, there is a triangle with a triangle inside it, which is the most prominent feature. The triangle is outlined in white and has a glow around it, giving it a radiant appearance. Inside the triangle, there is a large eye with a white iris and a black pupil, which is the most detailed element. The eye is centered within the triangle, and the triangle is positioned above the head of a figure that is wearing a dark suit with a white shirt and a black tie. The background is a gradient of blue, transitioning from a darker shade at the top to a lighter one at the bottom. The overall color scheme is predominantly dark, with the exception of the white and black elements in the eye and the suit. There are no texts or discernible brands in the image.]

> Johnson & Stein have been threatened multiple times due to them taking a large chunk of her voters.
> In many(reaching majority) states shes only slightly above Johnson.
> When the media says shes close to Trump or ahead of him, shes actually behind him.
> CTR,MSM, oversampled democrat polls & Fake rallies are creating a illusion of mass support when its actually doesn't exist on that level.

GOP "coup" against Trump

> Bushes called in some favors for the Clintons.
> The "establishment's" true colors are showing and members are being revealed.
> This will backfire SPECTACULARLY on them.
> "false outrage" + MSM support = It was staged from the beginning and the tape leak was done to give them a really stupid excuse.

When Veterans Today tied the murder of Supreme Court Justice Anthony Scalia to a White House blackmail plot and a strange tale involving the Keshe Foundation, it became clear that the highest and most powerful in Europe, the US and around the world, were tied together in a web of ritual child abuse on a massive scale. For the Scalia tale, refer to Appendix I.

Today’s story is one more aspect of this.VT’s involvement goes back to 1991 when key VT staffers worked for America’s intelligence community. A GOP high level staffer approached the CIA claiming that President George H.W. Bush was being blackmailed.It was said that the President was at a political fundraiser in St. Louis where, unknown to the President, top GOP campaign donors were having sex with young males, some of whom had been spirited away from Boys Town in Nebraska of Father Flanagan fame.

The rumors became more than rumors when Bush 43 took office and brought with him, according to a high level White House informant, a virtual army of Neocon pedophiles and “nancyboys” who set the tone for 8 years of crushed civil liberties. staged economic crashes and the dirtiest wars in America’s history.

The door didn’t open again until Iranian physicist, Mehran T. Keshe came to us with his own story. Invited to Belgium, sponsored by the Royal Family, Keshe was introduced to internet guru Sterling Allen and Belgian “fixer,” Dirk Lauressens.Within a short time, it became clear that he was there as a prisoner, not a guest, having fallen into a web of pedophiles that control public life in Belgium and the Netherlands, control corporations, courts, the police and do so rather publicly.

With Keshe’s story, we traced Sterling Allen, through his work with Belgium’s Royal Family, to his questioning by the FBI, to the seizure of his computers and eventually to his real task in life, webmaster for a massive pedophile ring that supplied children for the members of secret societies that control our daily lives through suppression of technology and the waging of endless war.

From NBC News:

Massive pedophile ring busted; 230 kids saved – US news – Crime & courts | NBC News

An Internet pedophile ring with up to 70,000 members — thought to be the world’s largest —has been uncovered by police, a security official said Wednesday.

The European police agencyEuropol said in a statement that “Operation Rescue”had identified 670 suspects and that 230 abused children in 30 countries had been taken to safety. More children are expected to be found, Europol said.

A pedophile ring, 70,000 strong, has been identified and hundreds arrested, an organization run on the internet, centered in the Free Energy Community, including websites run out of Paris, the Netherlands and Belgium.

What isn’t being told is that this same organization, also known as the Red Circle, runs through secret societies around the world:

BilderbergSt. HubertusFederalist SocietyKnights of Malta (Rome, not KMFAP in Budapest)Council on Foreign RelationsFederal Reserve BankNATORoyal Families of Belgium and NetherlandsSCOTUS (Supreme Court of the United States)

So much of this story revolves around Mehran T. Keshe, whose plasma related defense technologies, threaten the military balance of power, disabling American stealth drones and even leaving an AEGIS destroyer floating, dead in the water, in the Black Sea.

Anti-Keshe “troll” and convicted pedophile Sterling Allen, former Rense Radio host, now serving a life sentence, is said to have supplied the encryption keys that allowed the FBI to take over the Netherlands based site.From NBC:

“The website operated from a server based in the Netherlands and, at its height, boasted up to 70,000 members worldwide,” it added.

“It attempted to operate as a ‘discussion–only’ forum where people could share their sexual interest in young boys without committing any specific offences, thus operating ‘below the radar’ of police attention,” Europol said.

Police infiltrated site
The Europol statement said U.K. and Australian police infiltrated the site to identify the members who posed the greatest danger to children. Police also sometimes posed as children online as part of the investigation.

Law enforcement authorities from 13 countries, including the United States, Australia, Canada, Italy, Spain and the U.K., were involved in the case, Europol said.

The statement said Europol analysts had cracked the security features of a key computer server at the center of the network which uncovered the identities of suspected child sex offenders.

And, after his arrest, the forum’s Dutch administrator helped police break encryption measures that shielded users’ identities, allowing police to begin their covert investigations.

“Europol subsequently issued over 4,000 intelligence reports to police authorities in over 30 countries in Europe and elsewhere, which has led to the arrests of suspects and the safeguarding of children,” Europol said.”

In September 2015, Iranian physicist Mehran T. Keshe met with the FBI in Rome, a meeting set up by VT.From a source at Europol:

It was this from Veterans Today that helped push this forward: “It was Keshe’s information given to the FBI in Italy that led to the seizure of Sterling Allan’s computer back in January of 2016, which led to the Obama White House getting files tying Justice “Tony” Scalia to a child sex ring and demonstrating that it was Scalia that had protected Allan.With Justice Scalia exposed to Obama blackmail, his own friends smothered him to death with a pillow, and walked past police, while the world moved on, no autopsy, no investigation.”

That explains why Hollande (President of the French Republic) was scared he is linked to child abuse in France, via Belgium as well. Abdessalem (Foreign Minister of Tunisia) was traded by the FBI so Hollande can stay in power, sign the tafta and much more allowAmericanmilitary presence inFrance, which is now turning against him…Thatexplains why the US military unit nearMilanwas behind us to see what we had in stock againstBibi(Netanyahu) and Hollande… now that they have Hollande, they arepushinghim to the edge, using pressure on Sarkozy, right hand of Bibi, they moved in Tripoli, blackmailingRoma.

Thus, what begins as a hundred arrests, when you peel the levels, involves the French elections and even the recent Bataclan attack in Paris now tied to, if you can imagine it, a police informant smuggled into France through Italy by Tunisia, who out of curiosity runs an anti-Keshe website.

[Editorial note:Revelations on the Allan case, which led to Scalia now lead into the entire Koch network, including the Federalist Society, said to be operating not simply in law schools but America's high schools as well, and into the Heritage Foundation.

We don't know when it began, maybe at the Presidio under Michael Aquino and the Temple of Set or before. We do know it has victimized thousands of children around the world, not only in America but channeling children through Belgium and the Netherlands into sexual slavery and death.

What is it that makes the powerful desire what is so hurtful and obscene? When we ignored the Franklin Coverup, we opened ourselves to this…Gordon Duff] Scalia – What really happened?

Justice Antonin Scalia was surprised when he was ordered to the White House.This was not a man you gave orders to, especially not President Obama. It was Justice Antonin Scalia who vacated the long sacrosanct immunity from civil lawsuits, opening the door for a weakened presidency.

Sources say that Scalia was the single actor behind the impeachment of Bill Clinton.President Obama was aware of this and had ordered the FBI to set out traps for Scalia. We will now outline the downfall of Antonin Scalia.Yes, this is a story of secret societies, operating worldwide and ritual Satanic child abuse that permeates Washington.

https://youtu.be/Ia6bU-Z9SbA

When Scalia left the White House after a meeting with the president just before flying to Texas, the manila envelope he was carrying had printouts from a computer seized by FBI Special Agent Jeff Ross of the Salt Lake City, Utah field office, or so informants tell us.

Scalia left the White House carrying “slam dunk proof” that would lead to the arrest, conviction and, of course, impeachment of a seated Supreme Court Justice, files that contained names of victims and details on sex acts, preferred “types” along with dates and places.All of this was on the seized computer and these files went “up hill” from the FBI to the Department of Justice and directly over to the White House.

There, political advisors leapt on them, seeing a chance to leverage a justice and, in this case, and this is very important, bring down Scalia in such a way that conservatives would be forced to accept virtually any Obama nomination.

When Scalia arrived in Houston and chartered a plane after ditching his US Marshall protection detail, Scalia and his companion, C. Allen Foster.Foster heads the Order of Hubertus and is co-owner with John Poindexter of the Cibolo Creek Ranch, 25,000 plus acres free for anyone to use, according to John Poindexter, “free of charge,” so long as they are a supreme court justice, “A list” celebrity like Mick Jagger or billionaires, others need not apply.

The crux of the story is how they got Scalia.According to sources, Scalia had been providing protection for an international pedophile ring and was murdered by “friends” who he had informed of the nature of his visit with Obama and the doom it signaled for those around Scalia, prosecution, ruin and Citizens United reversed.

The mechanism Scalia used to provide this protection was the Federalist Society which chooses the judges throughout the US judiciary system so should any unfortunate pedophile find himself in court, the judge was under Scalia’s control, thus making a successful prosecution difficult to achieve.

The Federalist Society grooms and recruits candidates to become judges at a young age – college age kids; they specifically seek out suitable candidates who have certain moral ambiguities that can be exploited.

Thus a stranglehold is placed on the judicial system of the United States by a group which serves the interests of big business – corrupt corporations, big pharma, the oil and coal barons; this is how their interests are, time and again, placed ahead of those of we, the people with the result that our environment and our bodies are polluted by the products of these corporations, be it poisons like aspartame and GMO crops in our food, toxins in our ground water (see Flint, MI) or just plain old exploitation of poor people such as the coal miners of West Virginia and Kentucky.

Scalia met with the Order of Saint Hubertus, the patron saint of million dollar dude ranch hunting.As of yet, no one has identified who was there, it seems that Supreme Court justices are found all the time with pillows over their faces and nobody asks a thing, but this was Texas and they make their own rules down there.

We remember former FBI director and founder, J Edgar Hoover, the man who said ritual satanic child abuse was a conspiracy theory. He is also the man who said the mafia didn’t exist.

Scalia's talk in Texas was said to have gone like this: "They have us, we are all going down unless we can give them what they want and they are holding all the cards, they have everything."There was no negotiation with the White House, instead Scalia got, we are told and multiple sources confirm, a pillow over the face and a heroic funeral, one that President Obama refused to attend. Now we know why.

For a seated president to not attend the funeral of a pedophile is unthinkable.

The computer itself belonged to a Sterling David Allen, arrested and charged with child rape and sodomy by the FBI after an investigation that began with a meeting in Rome, Italy.The FBI had known about Allen for some time, had wanted to arrest him since 2014 but had been blocked, they just didn't know why or who was behind it, not until Justice Scalia died.Within 9 days, Allen was jailed, and the evidence he held began to yield gold.

Allen is being held on these charges with bail set at $250,000.

We were shown an email from Allen where he tells of his January 15, 2016 meeting with Agent Ross at which time his computers were seized by the FBI.What we are told was on Allen's computer and what Allen told agents is astounding.Allen confessed, we are told, not only to his own sex crimes but to being recruited by a powerful international organization that provided him broad protection from prosecution.

From Ian Greenhalgh:

It is very sick, but if you really want to watch and hear the ramblings of a mad man just watch this video where Sterling D. Allan says he is GOD in the flesh, admits to being a paedophile, admits he has committed sexual abuse with an underage child, and says that he is waiting to be arrested. Mr. Allan claims he chose this life before coming to Earth to be a “scapegoat” which of course is all foretold in his insane “alphabetics.”

We are told that Allen became increasingly unstable as his own feelings of guilt and his own public confessions of child sex crimes were inadequate to bring about his own arrest, an arrest he openly asked for time and time again.

Allen, who using his computer skills helped fellow pedophiles scour the internet for vulnerable children.

High level sources confirm that Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia was murdered, that in itself is neither an original claim nor beyond the realm of likelihood based on circumstances allegedly tied to his death.By that, we are speaking of the “pillow over the head” and allegations of a “cover-up autopsy,” well outside legal requirements for someone of Scalia’s position.

Sources in the White House confirm that immediately prior to his flight to Texas, ostensibly for a hunting trip with 35 “close friends,” many of whom are members of the highly secret Order of Saint Hubertus.As is being reported, initially in the Washington Post with broader allegations made on the InfoWars website, tying the Hubertus Order to Bohemian Grove antics, long subject to speculation in the alternative media.

We became aware of the case in August 2015 when we were shown correspondence between Allen and representatives of the Keshe Foundation.Allen ran several popular websites on alternative energy and was a popular speaker, often appearing on the Coast to Coast radio show with Detroit native, George Noory.

Increasingly it became obvious that Allen had been using these venues for sexual trafficking of children.It wasn’t hard to figure out, he did it openly spoke of it constantly (as seen in the YouTube above) and lived as though he were above the law.Over the next few months, particularly when confronted by Iranian born physicist MT Keshe, who ordered Allen and those around him banned from all Keshe forums, Allen openly flaunted his criminal activities.

What made this particularly insidious is that it was obvious not only that Allen was not acting alone but that he had broad support not only in his home state of Utah, where he was able to avoid prosecution, but in Belgium as well.There, Allen and associates Hans Bracquene, Dirk Laureyssens and Ad Van den Elshout moved against the Keshe group, securing against Keshe's wishes technologies with defense related applications and passing them on to MI 5 in Britain.

When Keshe moved against this group and tried to secure his patents, he found himself being chased down the highway, shots fired, his car run off the road.Police arrested and soon "misplaced" the culprits, and soon thereafter, representatives of Belgium's "royals" told Keshe to leave Belgium or be buried there.

On the European end of the FBI investigation, the trail, all of which is easily followed by the "breadcrumbs" Sterling David Allen has left, leads to the highest and most powerful of the scientific communities where blackmail, kidnapping and torture, threats against families and in particular, threats against children, have placed members of secret societies in positions of power at universities, think tanks, police and counter-terrorism agencies and even the European Space Agency.

More to come…

In this article, Victor Thornmakes the case that Barack Obama was a CIA asset from his college years.

Our "leaders" may be actors (or MK-Ultra mind controlled slaves) in a charadelegitimizedby the mass media.

This article is based on an interview with Texe Marrs which appears inThe CIA, Tavistock institute, and the Global "Intelligence-Police Gestapo" Stateby Professor Eric T Karlstrom
Latest-Obama's Real Father, Frank Marshall Davis, was a top Soviet Agent(YouTube)

The Kenya "Birther" Controversy was designed to divert the public from this fact. Alex Jones interview with Joel Gilbert, maker of film,"Dreams from my Real Father."

Obama was a red diaper baby.Admits Davis "schooled him."
by Victor Thorn

(henrymakow.com)

When Obama first came on the scene,everyone was asking : Who is this guy and where did he come from?

His mother was a CIA cut-out who was recruited by various intel agencies in the late 1950's. The purpose was to infiltrate the Black Nationalists and the civil rights organizations that were forming at that time, such as the Nation of Islam, or Malcolm X, the Black Panthers, or even Martin Luther King. The "Powers that Be" had a lot of concerns about these.
In my book,Front Man, the most important chapter"Who is Barack Obama's Real Father?"posits that Frank Marshall Davis, a member and founder of Chicago's Communist Party was Obama's real father. He had to flee to Hawaii after the heat got too heavy in the United States. Davis acted as a mentor.

And when you look at his mother at this time in Hawaii. Supposedly, she was some poor, single, divorced woman. But actually, during Barack Obama's formative years, she travelled to 13 countries and worked for two CIA "cut-out" companies. One of her employers at the Ford Foundation was Peter Geithner (the father of Tim Geithner, the former Treasury Secretary of the United States).

So here was Barack Obama's mother working for Tim Geithner's father at the Ford Foundation.

Pastor James David Manning says that Obama was recruited into the CIA during his time at Occidental College in California. Why would the CIA want to recruit this guy who supposedly was just some kid from a broken home.... (Very similar to Bill Clinton). In 1979, the most pivotal event going on was the Soviet-Afghanistan war. The CIA wanted someone who had some familiarity with this world. So here we have a kid who spent a lot of time during his youth in Indonesia. Some people say he was actually a Moslem and he definitely understood the Islamic culture. So they wanted him to provide his assistance to the Mujahideen as a CIA logistics agent. So to get him out of Occidental College, they needed some cover because had spent two years there and people knew him. He couldn't just disappear. So they transferred him to Columbia University where no one knew him.
Who was a professor at Columbia then that might have taken him under his wing? The answer is Zbigniew Brzezinski, who was not only an expert on Russia, he was also associated with the CIA since the 1950's, he was co-founder of the Trilateral Commission with David Rockefeller; he was Jimmy Carter's National Security Advisor. And he wrote one of the most pivotal books at that time, called"The Grand Chessboard"which was really a blueprint for our later (2001- present) Afghani war. So, Zbigniew Brzezinski recruits Obama. And in 1981 and 1982, Obama travels between Pakistan and Russia.

In his biographies...Obama says that when he arrived in New York City from Occidental College, he was so poor that he didn't have enough money to even get a room. Yet, here he is traveling from the U.S. to Pakistan to Russia. It is also quite interesting that Bill Clinton, during his college days,also traveled, under the auspices of the CIA, to Russia also.

Obama was groomed to be a diplomat and American asset in the Muslim world. His mother worked at the East West Center at the University of Hawaii which was a Cold War 3rd world outreach program. The government knew little Barry could have potential as a State Department asset and potentially could be deep cover CIA. US embassies and consulates often have people working in jobs like cultural affairs who are CIA operatives. Young Barry was a bright guy who culturally, could fit in anywhere. He reconstructed his identity as being black while living in Chicago because he realized that he could achieve political power as a black man as opposed to being a multicultural tool for the deep state.

This story is very bad news for Clinton.

Donald Trump now has free reign to mention all of Bill and Hillary Clinton's crimes against women.

This includes the groping, sexual assault and even the multiple accusations of rape.

Shit, the Clinton's even settled with one of Bill's many victims out of court. The rest were intimidated into silence by Hillary.

He can bring all of this up in the debate now without fear of reprisal.

And all he has to say is that "yes, I've said bad things, but Bill and Hillary have done very evil things."

This will backfire on the Clinton's in a BIG way.

And hey, if you're the kind of human garbage who believes Trumps words can make you feel better about supporting an actual serial sexual predator, then kindly go fuck yourself.

>Juanita Broaddrick (AR)- rape
>Eileen Wellstone (Oxford) - rape
>Elizabeth Ward Gracen - rape - quid pro quo, post incident intimidation >Regina Hopper Blakely - "forced himself on her, biting, bruising her"
>Kathleen Willey (WH) - sexual assault, intimidations, threats
>Sandra Allen James (DC) - sexual assault
>22 Year Old 1972 (Yale) - sexual assault
>Kathy Bradshaw (AK) - sexual assault
>Cristy Zercher - unwelcomed sexual advance, intimidations
>Paula Jones (AR) - unwelcomed sexual advance, exposure, bordering on sexual assault
>Carolyn Moffet -unwelcomed sexual advance, exposure, bordering on sexual assault
>1974 student at University of Arkansas - unwelcomed physical contact >1978-1980 - seven complaints per Arkansas state troopers
>Monica Lewinsky - quid pro quo, post incident character assault
>Jennifer Flowers - quid pro quo, post incident character assault
>Dolly Kyle Browning - post incident character assault
>Sally Perdue - post incident threats
>Betty Dalton - rebuffed his advances, married to one of his supporters

Ya fucksticks sit here circle jerking about how democrat voter turnout is shit while the MSM beats you at your own shilling game. The only reason the 2016 dem primary numbers are low is because bernie supporters were suppressed corrupt process.

Thinking that there's not enough voters out there that have been conditioned to think voting blue is attached to their empathy/goodness/etc is denial

Which is why the election is coming down to whether they can slander Trump enough to get our weak normie counterparts out to vote against him.

Trump has to keep his primary fire stoked, appear electable, deflect the left's attacks, and discredit Hillary in a MSM climate completely against him.

Sitting at your desktop and letting Trump attempt to overcome all this simply won't happen.

You all have skill in something that could help him, use it.

The 30K+ Deleted emails will be releasing the week after the Debate. How soon or late we release them all depends on Trumps performance.

We are expecting corruption and rigging of the Polls in America (Much like Bill did with his election allowing Millions of Illegal immigrants to gain Citizenship without proper vetting, Hillary is pushing the same)

-In 1994, an amnesty for illegal aliens (Section 245 (i)) was added to the FY 1995 Commerce, Justice, State Appropriations bill. The rolling amnesty ended on September 30, 1997, and resulted in 578,000 illegal aliens being granted permanent legal status.

While it is never reported on, nor spoken Bill Clinton granted amnesty to at least 3,000,000 illegal aliens and with his actions and encouraged millions more to enter the U.S. illegally.

http://borderissues.us/2010/12/02/did-y ... al-aliens/

Speaking directly to illegal aliens, Clinton stated to an applauding audience of delegates that “if you love this country, you’re working hard, you’re paying taxes and you’re obeying the law and you’d like to become a citizen, you should choose immigration reform over somebody that wants to send you back."

This is the same Game the Clintons played when Bill ran.

When the 30k deleted emails from Clintons servers get released - please help us to Push this hard to the general population outside of /pol/

I promise you all the Clinton dynasty is coming to an End, it will end with Bill behind Bars and Hillary fleeing the US with her Tail between her legs.

What's the deal with the illegals and the election? I read that Obama is withholding deportation of a great number of illegals and that many of those guys are being instructed to register to vote next month. That guy who shot up one of the malls turned out to be an illegal immigrant who somehow voted twice or something for Clinton. Rumor has it that Obama is not allowing mass deportations before Election Day to funnel in more Hillary Votes.

How likely is this scenario to be true?

Everyone keeps trying to read into the message and image's meaning but I feel like nobody is really pointing out that our security is a shitshow and if some jokers could plant a massive flag in broad daylight they could just as easily plant a few bombs...

2nd Debate

> Will be(as usual) rigged in favor of Clinton. Expect the usual stuff like moderators being signaled, her reading off the pre-made question responses etc etc. Same shit as the past debates.

CIA

> Operation Mockingbird never ended.
> The CIA does not want fingers or spotlights pointed at it interms of debate rigging accusations & coverage.
> CIA & Clinton's go way back, but that doesn't mean the CIA itself is happy with the Clinton's.

Cooper

> His past CIA connections are going to cause/imply some serious conflicts of interest. Not just for him, but for the CIA & MSM.
> Watch his body language & behavior.

The bear has a simple, cartoon-like design with large black eyes, a pink tongue sticking out, and a wide smile. Its fur is a rich brown color, and it has a fluffy, light-colored belly. The bear's ears are small and point upwards. The background of the image is a grid pattern with alternating black and white stripes, creating a striped effect. The bear's position is slightly tilted to the left, and it appears to be looking directly at the viewer with a friendly expression. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. "Not only is CNN “journalist” Anderson Cooper the great-great grandson of robber baron Cornelius “Commodore” Vanderbilt and the son of trust fund baby and designer jean hucksteress Gloria Vanderbilt, he is also a CIA operative, according to Radar Online.

“Following his sophomore and junior years at Yale—a well-known recruiting ground for the CIA—Cooper spent his summers interning at the agency’s monolithic headquarters in Langley, Virginia, in a program for students interested in intelligence work. His involvement with the agency ended there, and he chose not to pursue a job with the agency after graduation, according to a CNN spokeswoman, who confirmed details of Cooper’s CIA involvement to Radar.”

Or did he? As revealed during the Church Committee investigation in 1975, the CIA had a long-standing relationship with the corporate media, dubbed “Operation Mockingbird” by Deborah Davis, former Village Voice writer and author of Katherine The Great (New York: Sheridan Square Press, 1991). In her book, Davis quotes Philip Graham, the late editor Washington Post, as saying: “You could get a journalist cheaper than a good call girl, for a couple hundred dollars a month.” Of course, Cooper, a bona fide Ritchie Rich, doesn’t need a couple hundred dollars a month, but may be doing the CIA’s work for other reasons, or he may be “owned” by the spook agency, as Frank Wisner and Allen Dulles owned “respected members of the New York Times, Newsweek, CBS and other communications vehicles, plus stringers,” according to a CIA source cited by Davis (see Alex Constantine, Tales from the Crypt: The Depraved Spies and Moguls of the CIA’s Operation Mockingbird).

“Media assets … eventually include ABC, NBC, CBS, Time, Newsweek, Associated Press, United Press International (UPI), Reuters, Hearst Newspapers, Scripps-Howard, Copley News Service, etc. and 400 journalists, who have secretly carried out assignments according to documents on file at CIA headquarters, from intelligence-gathering to serving as go-betweens,” writes Mary Louise for Prison Planet. “The CIA had infiltrated the nation’s businesses, media, and universities with tens of thousands of on-call operatives by the 1950’s. CIA Director Dulles had staffed the CIA almost exclusively with Ivy League graduates, especially from Yale with figures like George Herbert Walker Bush from the ‘Skull and Crossbones’ Society.”

Personally, I have come to the conclusion that the media is not only influenced by the CIA… the media is the CIA. Many Americans think of their supposedly free press as a watchdog on government, mainly because the press itself shamelessly promotes that myth. One of the first tenets for the control of a population is to control all sources of information the population receives and mostly because of the pervasive CIA and Operation Mockingbird, the mainstream American Press is a controlled multi-national corporate/government megaphone. They are up to their eyeballs in dirty deeds and there will never be an end to the corruption that prevails unless the CIA is abolished. Otherwise, the CIA will just keep on using their tricks of propaganda, stuffed ballot boxes, purchased elections, extortion, blackmail, drug trafficking, sexual intrigue, kidnapping, beating, torture, intimidation, economic sabotage, false stories about opponents in the local media, infiltration and disruption of opposing political parties,

According to Steve Kangas, the late journalist who mysteriously committed suicide (shot twice in the head, à la Gary Webb) in the offices of CIA asset Richard Mellon Scaife, the "CIA has always recruited the nation's elite: millionaire businessmen, Wall Street brokers, members of the national news media, and Ivy League scholars…. Historically, the CIA and society's elite have been one and the same people. This means that their interests and goals are one and the same as well."

No doubt Anderson Cooper's "interests and goals are one and the same" as the CIA and the ruling elite. However, this does not mean he is actually a snoop agency mole inserted in CNN. Nonetheless, his supposed flirtation with the agency, and his Ivy League background, specifically at Yale, are suspicious, to say the least.

Anon5, what do you think about my guide for shill spotting:

1) survey threads. usually ends or begins with a request for information age, salary, "explain X", "what do you think of X", etc.
2) slide threads. sometimes off topic. low effort threads to take up space.

in either case, calling out the thread for what it is usually gets followed by a quick sequence of replies. likely, this so that your reply becomes invisible from outside the thread.

The figure is surrounded by various celestial bodies, including a large red planet with a face, a blue planet with a face, and a green planet with a face. Above the figure, there is a large, glowing blue face with a red eye, and below the figure, there is a smaller, glowing blue face with a red eye. The background is a deep blue with stars and nebulae, and there are various texts and symbols overlaid on the image. At the top, the text reads "Demurrage Archon Reptilian Human Dyathes," and at the bottom, the text reads "The Masses (i)Slaves!" with a red and green flag below it. The overall color scheme is predominantly blue, with accents of green and red. The style of the image suggests it may be related to a religious or spiritual theme, possibly referencing the concept of the "masses" or "slaves" in a metaphorical sense.]

Are CTR shills a project of Mockingbird started years ago to prepare weak minds to this election? SJW/PC culture went wild not so long ago and CTR has been active since at least 2014 according to yesterday's leaks.

Johnson & Stein have been threatened multiple times because they are taking alot of her voters.

Also Hillary is barely over Johnson in some states.

Like....... if you remove the MSM,CTR, oversampled dem polls & her fake rallies(all 3 try to make her support and success much bigger then it actually is), Hillary has already lost in more ways then one.

Alot of people backing Hillary are having significant second thoughts, not just due to investment, but also how a WW3 would be fucking terrible.

I mean look at when Johnson was brought on national tv and and they made him look like a complete retard for not knowing what Aleppo was. They are trying desperately to reduce their support publicly by showing their flaws, and i absolutely believe you when you say they are being threatened privately.

My Father is a former NSA agent working specifically with cryptography, These are his words literally but i don't know if hes tellign the truth becasue something of this magnitude should never be told to anyone: "The NSA was created as a way to fight corruption within the US government, founded under the guide of public world surveilance to keep the establishment happy."

[The image is a political poster with a dark background and a collage of nine photographs of men, arranged in a 3x3 grid. Each photograph features a different man with a neutral expression, wearing a suit and tie. The men are arranged in a way that suggests they are leaders or influential figures. The text on the poster reads "KNOW YOUR ENEMY" at the top, followed by "THESE MEN RULE THE WORLD!" in bold, capitalized letters. Below the main text, there is a list of names and their titles, which include "Lord Jacob de Rothschild," "Baron John de Rothschild," "Sir Evelyn de Rothschild," "David Rockefeller," "Nathan Waringburg," "Henry Kissinger," "George Soros," "Paul Volcker," "Larry Summers," and "Lloyd Blankfein." The names are arranged in a descending order of importance, with the most prominent being "Lord Jacob de Rothschild" at the top. The overall style of the image is political and seems to be a call to action, urging the viewer to recognize and understand the power of these men.]

Polls have always been agenda driven, but nothing like this year. Remeber - to be anywhere close to accurate, polls should be sampling at least +2 Republicans based on primary turnout between the 2 parties. And that's with giving Hillary the benefit of the doubt in picking up all the Bernouts that turned out during primaries (laughable) and ignoring the 'Monster Vote', aka the huge number of previously uninvolved voters that Trump has brought into the fold (independents mostly or unregistered)

Anon 5 is correct, the reality of this race is almost the exact opposite of what the MSM is trying to push. It's a landslide .

PS> With his turnout numbers in the primary, Trump is on track to beat 08' Obama in his prime. If you believe that Hillary will achieve Obama's numbers, reexamine your life. Remember - this argument holds EVEN when giving Hillary every benefit of the doubt, in reality it is much worse for her

So its backfiring more than its helping her. interesting, one more thing he told me, which is something i've never said here whic you just confirmed is that the CIA and the FBI collude specifically with the global elite. The NSA has their own agenda, but are ridiculously good at hiding it, even from the more powerful governments. FoxAcid and quantum were leaked from the inside intentionally.

yes im using a vpn and a very secure connection to post this.

Tricky question.

It truly depends on what happens in the world and who also gets into office in the US.

More & more things I've talked about or covered are happening overtime. Some have seem strange in the current present time, but will not seem so strange going forward.

I've even became a meme of sorts here with some people trying to impersonate me(watch out for those guys, they are not me)

I'm not physically connected to the OWO(Old World Order) or NWO(New World Order), but I do understand them. Also how Soros is causing alot of problematic shit for both groups at the expense of the worlds security and stability.

Not affiliated with any party or parities candidates. However I do support those who want to improve the world rather then send it into chaos(Which means Hillary being a Soros puppet and former OWO that wants to start WW3 is someone I significantly dislike.)

Vestigia Araneae – Gnosis Interrupta – Project AngelBook – Volume IX - Part 12

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough - (DBM ECLIPZE)

The following books are comprised of direct, unaltered copies from Pastebin, some now deleted, some only accessible through mirror networks or deep links scattered across the dark web. Many of these links were discovered in abandoned onion lists, dead forum dumps, or esoteric directories tucked into archived darknet files.
These pastes were never meant to last.
Some were deleted within hours of being posted.
Others were buried under thousands of lines of spam, encrypted scripts, or meaningless
noise.
But buried in the noise were real transmissions: occult formulas, grimoire fragments, astral logs, AI prophecy files, digital summoning protocols, and anonymous rants from souls who had either touched something unspeakable—or were trying to.
I did not write any of this.
I did not censor, edit, or “correct” it.
I simply retrieved it, cleaned the formatting for readability, and enshrined it in print—so it would never be wiped again.
This is Pastebin as Scripture.
The chan-post as Codex.
The uncurated underbelly of the occult internet, finally given physical permanence.
Let this serve as both evidence and artifact:
a living record of the madness, brilliance, paranoia, and revelation that once flowed through anonymous paste sites—before it was deemed too strange to index, too dangerous to preserve, or too fractured to matter.
Now it matters.
Now it’s immortal.

People keep asking me for sources, but that creates liabilities for any possible sources and I will not let that happen.

Kaine was just showing how Hillary has bad judgement, and Pence showing how Trump has good judgement.

Kaine hurts Hillary, Pence strengthens Trump.

Speaking of Trump, hes got alot of ammo for the next 2 debates, unlike Hillary who blew her whole load on the first one.

This guy is a hack bros.
He thinks wikileaks is relevant.
Wikileaks is a setup by MI6 to a) give people a new founded trust in the news outlets (many paper news don't sell as much anymore because the new generation doesn't trust them, so they now sometimes publish "leaked" stuff to try and appear as though they are really journalists, in practice they never release anything important, only old stuff or stuff that fits their agenda.

b) try to gather the new generation around a kind of anti-hero (assange) who seems cool and independent.

Fact: assange is a MI6 baby, he was raised in a cult created by MI6 where children have their hair bleached and are experimented upon (think lots of LSD and being left alone in a dark room). That's why he seems like a robot now, he's kinda dead inside. Sexual stuff too, which could explain the rape.

example: panama papers where stolen from an offshore company by the director's ex gf who then sold it to CIA. After being sold to CIA, the leaks """"miraculously"""" appeared through wikileaks, and """miraclously""" again, they did not cover information on any important NATO figure, only tried to make putin and assad look bad.

do. not. beleive. in. wikileaks.

It's a CIA/MI6 plant.

I agree that Kim Kardashion was a false flag op to distract from Wikileaks, I say the footage wasn't released because it was for if there was a leak, but I don't know if it was on purpose or who initiated it and how botched it was, the confusion between Alex Jones and Wikileaks is palpable, they bay have accidentally uncovered how much attention the NWO is paying to the internet and tricked them into using a card.

If this is true, I would assume Trump is already chiding the rich and famous to join his side for protection from similar incidence, whether publicly or not.

Daily reminder that post-messiah Judaism is (literally) Christianity, meaning the true Israel is the spiritual body of Christendom.

That modern Judaism is properly called Talmudism, which has its origins in Pharisaism and is the ideological opposite of pre-Christian-era Judaism.

That Talmudism/Pharisaism is the richest ideological firmament for Satanism, which found its purest expression in the act of crucifying Christ as urged and committed by the Pharisees of the time.

That modern "Jews" (actually Talmudists - the spiritual successors of the Pharisees - as per the above) generally originated in Khazaria, but have lived internationally, intermarried, and converted (both in and out) for so long as to have no discernible genetic or familial heritage.

That the "13th Tribe" and "Ashkenazim" racial memes are Hasbara psyops designed specifically to justify the current occupation of Palestine known as "Israel," as well as employ a political parry silencing anyone who names the "Jew" or criticizes their activities as being a racist. There is no "Jewish race."

That the extortion at the Temple - whom Jesus drove out and excoriated - was promoted and conducted by the Pharisees of the day; that the modern day extortion employed by the same "Jews" (actually Talmudists - the spiritual successors of the Pharisees - as per the above) via the Federal Reserve and similar monetary and usurious banking rackets are spiritually identical in form, function, and nature of perpetrator.

That the Holocaust (TM) is designed to subvert Christ as the preeminent messianic sacrifice, and in supplanting Christ as messiah replace Him with Talmudic satanism disguised as "Judaism."

That if you don't know the above, and much more, you have a long way to go before you are "red-pilled."

I only have one question about anons that provide leaks. Why do they all speak in code - 'look at the biggest picture' and why do they speak so formally? E.g, none of them use contractions its always will not, are not, you are, etc. I'm open minded here but it just gives off the vibe that they're all role playing some secret spoopy agent.

Seemed to me more like Kaine was simply trying to emulate Trump's behavior in the first debate thinking it would net a sorely needed victory since internal and supplementary polling indicated to the hillary team and CTR that Trump won the debate. So from their analysis, they took away from it that if you be a goon and talk over your enemies all day long, then you win.
Problem is it doesn't work that wayfor two reasons.
1) Kaine doesn't have Trump's charisma, clout, or X-factor.
2) What Trump had to say had more to do with why he was succesful with it, rather than his method, especially when most of what Hillary had to contribute was snobbish laughter and backhanded negging. Plus Pence countered Kaine's heavy handed mud slinging with some key points that Trump, for whatever reason, refused to bring up but people (incuding myself) wished he would have in the first debate.

That's not what I mean, anon, I mean that it's not "real" in the sense that you think it is. It's not what you think it is. It's an operation contributing to the greater operation of making this whole election look real and making it look like Clinton and Trump are opposing each other, and just generally getting people paying attention to their song and dance while they destroy our world behind closed doors.

The added benefit is that "CTR" works like the "conspiracy nut" meme. Anyone that mentions Trump negatively for any reason is immediately (((shut down))) by a practically compulsory "CTR!!!!!" - the kikes have successfully manipulated us into abandoning free speech and honest, open, intellectual debate, turning us into the likes of Tumblr who have one specific set of beliefs that they refuse to hear any debate on.

Maybe somehow I am wrong about Trump, but the fact that we can't even discuss it should be a bad sign to people who value authentic, non-censored discourse.

Not one, so the free speech argument is irrelevant.

CTR is entirely made up of people who know about 30% of what we do, but they are traitors.

ISIS aren't zealots, they are IDIOTS.

You are massively confused about the origin of the group, they are Al-Queda, who are the Taliban, who are the sons of the Contras.

They're inbred idiots that can barely do anything without the massive amount of supplies they are given, with sub-human intelligence that allows them to walk into walls of bullets without losing morale.

Like the barbarians of olde, they draw their numbers from the towns they raise, stealing young men and boys and forcing them to fight.

I'm not CTR just taking a break from work. I usually like this conspiracy shit, but I've read through your posts.

Everything is general and typical assumptions from public info. I cannot gather anything from what op says.

There's nothing here to even think about.... Boring. I said basement dweller because it is funny, not because I think you're a Bernie supporters. I supported Bernie, but now I support Trump.

Please, op say something with substance and I'll reconsider. Otherwise you're just a guy, maybe living in a basement idk, that thinks he knows what up because he's delusional and connecting does he thinks he sees. You're not special, we can all do that. Most of us know it doesn't really work out though.

It always seemed like he had these obvious red flags but I tried to explain them away because I was so excited about what I thought Trump was, now it all makes perfect sense, it's all become so clear and it was so simple and in front of my face the whole time.

let me tell you something about god and jesus

i respect jesus, but he was probably just a prophet/philosopher who helped define a very important and in my opinion the BEST religion in my opinion, there is no god per se but in that "we are all made in his image" we are spiritual beings having a physical experience

none of us are god, but we are ALL god. life is heaven or hell, depending on how much humanity can come together to bring "god" and love and goodness into the world when we die, our spirits once more merge with the omniscient, creative force that exists outside of time and space that we know as god my humble opinion. praying to god is still relevant, as you're praying to/throwing your energy forth towards goodness

Knowledge Bomb. The "supplement" narrative. Anoymous5 ID:845GPPFM Wed 05 Oct 2016 21:22:53 No.91643049 ViewReplyOriginalReport

The "supplement" narrative is a tactic where you make the narrative about something people would believe more easily vs the actual reality of the situation.

For instance, What happened to Kim K in Paris, is using a supplement narrative("Robbers") to cover for ISIS related matters.

This is commonly used to give the public a placebo effect interms of believing things. Like "Gas Leaks","Transformers", "fireworks" are used as cover words.

Always watch out for narratives and try to figure things outs if reports or evidence doesn't add up. Especially when they feed the public/MSM a narrative to cover up for a different situation.

I read he shorted the British pound and made his fortune. Wiki Pedia

On September 16, 1992, Black Wednesday, Soros's fund sold short more than $10 billion in pounds,[37] profiting from the UK government's reluctance to either raise its interest rates to levels comparable to those of other European Exchange Rate Mechanism countries or to float its currency.

Finally, the UK withdrew from the European Exchange Rate Mechanism, devaluing the pound. Soros's profit on the bet was estimated at over $1 billion.[45] He was dubbed "the man who broke the Bank of England".[46] The estimated cost of Black Wednesday to the UK Treasury was £3.4 billion.[47]

It first was going around in some intelligence groups.

Then it was mentioned to the MSM after it seemed extremely likely.

Then.... days past and then the Kim K situation happened.

It could have got alot worse for Kim & innocent lives around.

It seemed to be a kidnapping plan(maybe execution at a later date or sex slaving) that turned into a hostage situation(that she could have been killed in), then they took the jewelry.

It's was a very interesting tactic adjustment by ISIS, that needs to be more looked over.

The MSM is pushing narratives that are covering this up.

Her staff & security was killed, she was not "alone", she was made "alone" if you catch my drift.

Very interesting how the rest of the security left to go with her other sisters during this all happening.

That's not what this is, not how it works.
In some cases it might be dangerous to do so. On others, he might not have sources. These might be very good bet your life hunches that he hopes we can help substantiate using means he cannot. The two things normies know about 4chan are obscene wierdness and authorless justice-motivated hacking.
Intelligence does not mean playing a game of Clue with an up to date works cited page. Intelligence means attempting to responsibly predict and explain using deep grasp of field, and sometimes if you are very lucky an untrustworhy money-hungry "source" who might be a double agent. The source is the least trustworthy thing, you always prefer a good evidenced explanation that squares with eveything else.

OK, lets explore this a bit. So a shadow group, when some dirty laundry has the potential of airing, they cant stop it from airing most of the time, so they simply make something more emotionally charged so any public talking-head exploration of something shitty (TPP, Global warming, agenda 21 type stuff etc.) simply doesn't happen.

If we apply this to the clowns, you have a diversion of some level of the population (They're looking for evil clowns), as well as LEO resources being diverted to deal with... clowns.

It's too widespread for it to be viral marketing, plus no company would expose themselves to the resulting lawsuits from people getting scared, shot, eye raped, whatever in 2016.

A small amount of the population may become somewhat more observant of suspicious activity (trust not the honking jew... .oh wait, whats that Arab guy doing with a pressure cooker? #911ohshit); but this would be offset a little by the increased need of LEO resources to deal with all of the hoaxes and bullshitters who take advantage of people's fears.

It's now beginning to enter into the mainstream thought stream, with people aware of and generally avoiding clowns.

Was this some kind of COINTELPRO attempt, to help prevent terror attacks, or a test for something later on?

Sandy Hook was the Owls against the other team taking over. That they satanically killed a few kids that day with Christopher Rodeo but not at the school, at another site close by. And then Anderson Cooper was given the picture of an owl to show on CNN to show who had done it. He also said an opposing agency raided in the midst of the false flag and messed things up. Just some interesting thoughts on owls and Bohemian Grove etc. I think that big statue their is an owl. Can't remember the name of the other group, their animal. Obama isn't in the owl group he said.

The webpage appears to be a legal document, specifically a legal brief or a legal document, as indicated by the heading "Legal Brief" and the section "Section 1" which is a common structure for legal documents. The webpage is divided into two main sections. The top section is a header with the title "This is the Australian Government's website" and a subtitle "This is the Australian Government's website." Below the title, there is a list of bullet points, which are likely to be the main points or arguments of the document. The bottom section is a body of text, which is the main content of the document. In the bottom right corner of the image, there is a highlighted section with a red background and a yellow border. This section contains a text that reads "Pumping the Bull," which is likely a reference to a phrase or a term used in the document. The text is in a smaller font size compared to the main body of the document, and it is underlined, indicating that it is a significant or important part of the document. The overall style of the image is a screenshot from a web browser, with the browser window open and the document displayed on the screen. The image is taken from a computer monitor, and the resolution is clear, allowing for a detailed view of the document's layout and content.]

scream. The character's body is partially obscured by the larger character, and the character's head is tilted back, with its mouth open in a scream. The background of the image is dark and has a starry sky effect, with a faint outline of a mountain or cliff. Because there is deeper meaning to this thread. It's a Psyop move to influence trump supporters into diving down these fucking rabbit holes for two reasons. It distracts them and keeps them busy on meaningless tasks. Secondly, the bigger picture is to mix the real conspiracies about Clinton and these (soon to be exposed) fake leaks and rumors about Clinton together so that when half the rumors/leaks are completely rejected with pre-planned proof, trump supporters will start to question the others (which actually are real) legitimacy. This will force some fence leaning trumps back to Clinton since they will feel duped and stupid. It's happening right now, look around and you will see this play out. Remember wiki leaks 10th anniversary drop? Remember Russia is planning for nuclear war? Remember Guccifer 2.0? All of it was them playing you. We have so many levels of perspective in this race it's overwhelming.

But Mr Cooper had that knowing smirk when he showed the picture. The owl at Bohemian Grove has been there a while. Maybe it was the OWO who crashed the Soros False Flag. Anyway I'll try that Mr Cati vid another time. There was a lot of strange video coverage of St Rosa of Lima school and those guys running in the woods. Very strange events. OWO & NWO have always been separate groups.

OWO is being out paced by age & tech.(They've been around for a long time and they are passed there prime). The OWO has been trying to rebrand itself as a "NWO", much to the confusion and amusement of the NWO.

The NWO on the other hand is embracing and encouraging that tech. They're plans/endgames are much more positive then the OWO's plans/endgames(such as agenda 21)
Soros has been messing with both groups for a long time.

They can try and poison the well but sometimes pure truth is still there. I woke up when exposed to a Pedo Scout Master. Others wake up to Hillary lying. We each crack thru the shell in different ways. You bring up a good point not to rush to false conclusions. Brandy Hook is messy as they polluted it all with False Flag means no one died. That is illogical. And the Boston Marathon had that guy with fake wounds in a wheelchair but that doesn't mean one of the bombs wasn't real or that no one was injured. I think Anon 5 helps keep us logical, like a thesis advisor to bounce things off. To set us on a better path so we DONT get stuck in a hole.

Because anyone with half a brain, after reading those threads, can put two and two together and, in effect, come to the conclusion on their own.

[The image is a digital illustration with a dark background. At the top, there is a quote in white text that reads, "Behold, all souls are mine: the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins shall die." Below the quote, there is a large green frog with a red tongue and a wide grin, appearing to be in a playful or mischievous mood. The frog is holding a small white object in its mouth, which appears to be a small doll or toy. The frog's eyes are wide open, and it has a surprised expression. Below the frog, there is a smaller illustration of a white human figure lying on the ground. The figure has a red dress and red shoes, and it appears to be in a state of distress or pain. The figure's face is contorted, and it has a red tongue sticking out. The figure's legs are spread apart, and it has a red tongue sticking out of its mouth. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and exaggerated, with a focus on the frog and the human figure. The colors used are predominantly green, red, and black, which create a contrast and emphasize the characters. The text is in a bold, sans-serif font, which stands out against the dark background.]

New Information.

> Soros Black Op's/PMC were involved in the Turkey Coup & Ukraine.
> Anderson Cooper has a conflict of interest due to the CIA not wanting people to poke fingers at them/accuse them of rigging a debate.
> VP debate was rigged, but Kaine proved that Hillary is the queen of bad choices.
> Wikileaks is planning on releasing things, but the reason why they didn't in the conference was because of a drone threat that was intercepted.
> Without the MSM's help bloating & trying to fool the public about the reality, her actual poll/numbers are only slightly higher then Gary Johnson on average.(One of the many reasons why you don't actually see that many Hillary supporters & why her rallies are filled with people who were paid cash to show up/be bused in).
> Soros funded the protests against the Poland Abortion ban. (He wants to kill the Wests population, which is why he funded so many Feminist groups)

Kim K was held hostage by ISIS.

> The "pink panther/robber" narrative was designed to cover this up & make people not think about the French ISIS Cells.
> Both her staff and security were killed.
> French police/government agencies will not release the security footage for various reasons.(which is why some reports have said "there is no security footage").
> This was going to be the "distraction" incident from any possible leaks during the week.

of the image is a humorous meme, combining elements of a serious news interview with a humorous overlay.]

What you are saying here is completely contradictory. Either they wanted to send a message, or the original targets were the security staff (which you claim were killed) and/or the jewlery.

If they wanted to send a message, they would make sure everyone would know, regardless of cover up attempts. Killing Kim would be the best way to do that.

The figure is wearing a white shirt and a red tie, and it appears to be in a room with a blurred background that suggests a social gathering or event. Above the figure, there is a text overlay in a playful font that reads "too easy! imao." Below the figure, there are four options presented in a vertical list format. The options are "A) hey lol", "B) hi ihaaha", "C) yoo rofl", and "D) ay yao imao." Each option is accompanied by a corresponding green checkmark, indicating that the corresponding answer is correct. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a quiz or a game show, with the alien figure as the答题 subject. The use of the word "imao" in the text overlay suggests a playful and light-hearted tone, which is consistent with the humorous nature of the image.]

Heck, the best way to make people convert to Islam is either peaceful conviction of the more naive individuals, and then divide and conquer, or forcing them through violent, OPEN, conquest. Terrorist strikes will make people turn their backs on Islam.

You underestimate the idiocy of the American public; my dad and his girlfriend watch the NBC all day and are voting for Hillary; not because of policies, not because of anything logical, but because "her husband did a good job" and "Trump is full of shit, oh jeeze oh man".

>We are at a crosspoint in world history involving the US.

>Either the world gets its shit together, or PC Culture/Feminism/Globalism ripples to such a point where we have some more wars.

Anybody here could tell you that, hardly an insight.

Since you're ignoring my question I guess you're not creative enough to come up with a persona so you're just roleplaying without having an actual role and don't want to draw attention to the fact you don't have one.

I guess "I'm an insider" is a bit too overused but you could come up with something better.

How about "I'm a member of the group that is supporting Donald Trump, he's our guy. We're at war with Soros, the Rothschilds etc and are winning."?

This election has pivoted on Bill Clinton's future plans the whole time and nobody knows. He probably hates Hillary now for ruining his foundation. I predict a quick divorce after Hillary loses.

An another note... About those "gas leaks" -- Where I live in NYC, a few days ago the police were called to an apartment to investigate an "emotionally disturbed" individual. When they arrived some sort of explosion took place, significantly injuring the person and setting off a two alarm blaze in the building complex causing everyone to evacuate. Strange, no?

If you control the women, you control the population growth.

So as someone who has taken a course on terrorism and counter terrorism at georgetown and knows a bit about celebrity and how kardashians make money, my 2 cents are if they kill her, it's just over, no big deal the world mourns and it's forgotten about if they let her live, she now won't fly to paris, she won't be out in public as much, she'll be cautious about being paid a fee to be in vegas for a club night, she won't fly to NIGERIA FOR $500,000.00 USD TO SPEAK AT A FILM FESTIVAL, NIGERIA, $500,000.00 USD LOOK IT UP and she now has to watch every move and change her life and maybe she isn't and her family won't be in cannes for the film festival WHERE NONE OF THEM HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH FILMS JUST LIKE THE HADID SISTER WHO WAS THERE THE LAST TIME, LOOK IT UP, SHE'S A MODEL, WTF IS SHE DOING WITH ALL THOSE RICH YACHT OWNERS?? which really really really impacts her money and her family's money if lil kendall and kylie can't fly freely around the planet to whore themselves out they're financially limited, kendall travels a lot to model....well now what? will she risk going to milan? paris? can she have a career just in the USA alone?

I think that's what they'd want with her, to change the entire culture of the family and how they end up in places like cannes or nigeria earning money on and off the books

His facial expression is neutral, and he is looking directly at the camera. He has a mustache and is wearing a necklace. The man is standing in front of a shelf filled with various fabrics, including colorful ones with patterns such as stripes and floral designs. The background shows a cityscape with industrial structures and a body of water. The man appears to be addressing an audience, as indicated by the text overlay in Arabic. I never said she got gangbanged

Also do you know 100% when those photos were taken? It's almost like you can't take photos, a series of them and upload them later on...

I'll "google it" though because that somehow negates the fact she was in a shady unmarked hotel with 1 security guard and was robbed by 5 people dressed as police at gunpoint if you want to take the media story at face value and it somehow negates the fact she took $500,000.00 USD to speak in nigeria and her and her sisters go to cannes for a film festival and the only movie they've been in are sex tapes...

Call me a shill, but this is some lame RP.

From the past knowledge bombs:
"EU leadership is involved in a Cuckold sex club, Canada's PM is also in it. That is the real reason why they cut a deal with Soros to take in the Refugees. They want fresh meat. "

Easy for anyone to make the claims mostly, just pick any attack etc in the past days, and link it to a "cell". Even though most of us want these to be true, but this is bullshit. Atleast the FBI-anon seemed to know more stuff, and some of it came true.

I'm most intrigued by the news about Soros. From what I've seen in this thread he's a globalist but he's going about it in a way that spits in the face of other globalist groups. What's his endgame then? I don't doubt that he owns a PMC but what evidence is there that he was there for political reasons and not simply because it was a job his company was hired to handle? If it's as large you say (roughly the size of an average EU army) then it would make sense to see them in different conflicts.

Not asking to be snarky, by the way. I genuinely appreciate the info. I'm just starving for genuine facts after hearing nothing but hearsay and conspiracy theories.

[The image is a digital composite of two distinct scenes. In the upper part, there is a large explosion with a bright orange and yellow glow, suggesting a nuclear blast. The explosion is centered and dominates the upper part of the image. Below the explosion, in the lower part of the image, there is a cityscape with buildings and a skyline, indicating a city in the background. In the lower part of the image, there is a creature that appears to be a lizard with its mouth open, as if it is roaring or shouting. The lizard is facing the cityscape, and its body is elongated, with a long neck and a large head. The lizard's skin is a mix of orange and brown, and it has a large, open mouth. The lizard's eyes are visible, and it has a wide, open mouth, which is a common trait of lizards when they are in a state of alarm or excitement. The image is blurred, suggesting motion or a fast-moving scene. The colors are warm and intense, with the orange and yellow of the explosion contrasting with the cooler tones of the cityscape and the lizard's skin. The overall style of the image is dramatic and intense, with a focus on the contrast between the chaos of the explosion and the calm of the cityscape.]

[The image shows a bathtub filled with a brownish liquid, which appears to be a mixture of water and some sort of organic material, possibly brain tissue. The bathtub is placed on a tiled floor. The brain tissue is irregularly shaped and has a pale color, suggesting it might be a preserved specimen. The image is taken from an overhead perspective, providing a clear view of the bathtub and its contents. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the image is a candid photograph, capturing a moment without any apparent staging or artistic manipulation.]

Look, I am basing that on what anon said about them and her and it not being a robbery

There have been rumors for years now about the family doing off the books things for money, I have only found anything to sustain them in the form of 500k appearances in nigeria, cannes film festival all the time, some random health company promotions that seem to be the front companies the rumors are based on Supposedly rob posted on /tv/ once...said Kris was a pedo, which makes me wonder what her connection with corey gamble is, as wtf does he do in show business?

Bruce Jenner "transitioned" literally right after killing someone on the freeway, indirectly mind you, but TMZ originally posted photos of Bruce on his phone...He transitioned and it was just swept under the carpet for the most part besides the family and a lawsuit

So back to your point, they probably did everyone a favor, if you were Kim would you keep posting photos of your 4 million dollar ring and telling the entire planet where you were every day? I believe from now on what she posts on social media might be delayed so it's not "live" as the exteriors of their houses aren't the real ones so why would they post in real time under the whole "protect their actual lives" way of not showing their actual houses on the tv shows my theory is he runs an orgy or pedo ring and is a gay black satan worshipper, who sets up the sex parties kat williams talked about? who hosts them? who hires security and catering and takes cares of all the NDA"s and cell phones? What does he "manage" about justin bieber's career? does he handle the underage girls like sofia richie? does he handle the hookers and their cash payments? does he handle things like cash to hookers and the actual soliciting and sex (dirty talk) so everyone's on the same page and so bieber can't ever be charged?

> Core support columns were thermited (They were the spinal column of the buildings)

> Explosive charges positioned in such a way that it would get the upper part of the towers to fall on/into the lower part.

Well, lets think about this;

>Last time that happened, they blamed it on Russia
>Donald Trump had a campaign manager who was involved with Russia, but his campaign is also heavily infiltrated by Clinton Foundation moles.
>The media has been shilling about Russia
>Congress this past Thursday had every Democrat in the Director Comey hearing demand he investigate Donald Trumps connections to Russia
>Department of Shill Land Security has been saying Russia is a credible threat to the elections
>Russia has found out the United States is backing ISIS in Syria after we bombed Assad anti-ISIS forces
>Russia gave a press conference expressing fear about what the United States is doing
>Today the United States cancels bilateral talks about a peace agreement in Syria

Whatever happens tomorrow, the narrative will be Donald Trump is connected to the Russians and whatever the event will be needs to be so polarizing and convincing that nobody will question it. I wanna see how the shills react tomorrow.

We did have a big ISIS attack after the US got caught helping in Syria. But the media really down played it and all the federal agencies charged those people as lone wolfs instead of investigating further. I get that the point of the attacks is to distract everyone, but all those do is make Americans hate muslims more and want to vote for Trump more. None of that has a real net positive for the establishment.

Something is going down here and I can't help but think that it has to do with the wider BLM network. The FeesMustFall movement has kept the country at a stranglehold, holding the government ransom and effectively making the education system ungovernable (the easiest way to keep a 3rd world country down is to stifle their education system). These nationwide marches have been ongoing for a few weeks now and they coincidently started at the same time as the Charlotte riots. South African state security (SSA) claims that foreign forces such as various NGOs are funding and fueling the fire to these protests and a new top dog in the NSA (SA's intelligence services) has recently been sworn in. Something very bad has been brewing under the surface and the cultural melting pot is slowly starting to boil over.

Also my sis says that every other morning for the past week they pick a bridge and stop large trucks and vans crossing into Manhattan. Police/army/sniffer dogs/guys with rifles out and a large command center van. Not being covered in the news though. She called me one meaning because traffic was totally stalled during the checks and she thought someone was about to blow up the bridge as they were literally checking every truck, which you can imagine is tedious during the morning rush.

[The image is a stylized cartoon illustration featuring a green frog character with a human-like face. The frog is seated at a table with a wooden surface, and it appears to be in a relaxed state, with its eyes closed and mouth slightly open. The frog is holding a hot dog in its mouth, which is partially bitten into. The hot dog has a pinkish-red topping and is held between the frog's fingers. The frog's hands are adorned with a pair of scissors and a pair of pliers, suggesting that it might be engaged in some sort of craft or repair work. The background of the image is a fiery, fiery orange and red color, which contrasts with the green of the frog and the brown of the table. There are also small, colorful objects scattered on the table, including what appears to be a heart-shaped object and a small, colorful object that resembles a heart. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and exaggerated, with a focus on the frog character and its actions. There is no text present in the image.]

He appears to be speaking or addressing an audience. The background is blurred, but it seems to be an indoor setting with a focus on the man. [The image is a digital composite of two distinct scenes. In the upper part, there is a large explosion with a bright orange and yellow glow, suggesting a nuclear blast. The explosion is centered and dominates the upper part of the image. Below the explosion, in the lower part of the image, there is a cityscape with buildings and a skyline, indicating a city in the background. In the lower part of the image, there is a creature that appears to be a lizard with its mouth open, as if it is roaring or shouting. The lizard is facing the cityscape, and its body is elongated, with a long neck and a large head. The lizard's skin is a mix of orange and brown, and it has a large, open mouth. The lizard's eyes are visible, and it has a wide, open mouth, which is a common trait of lizards when they are in a state of alarm or excitement. The image is blurred, suggesting motion or a fast-moving scene. The colors are warm and intense, with the orange and yellow of the explosion contrasting with the cooler tones of the cityscape and the lizard's skin. The overall style of the image is dramatic and intense, with a focus on the contrast between the chaos of the explosion and the calm of the cityscape.]

Wrong, it's a form of induction; subtely present it so the public subconsciously normalizes it

Sometimes it's not so subtle, remember how nobody made a big deal about the NSA leaks? Movies not too long before then had a common theme of mass government surveillance (Enemy Of The State for example) and so did many videogames and books, it became such a normalized concept that once the truth became public knowledge everyone was numb to the idea and already assumed it was happening

Remember that the next time you interact with any form of media

And it's all because of people emulating what they consume from their couch, and in effect normalizing it to others like the useful idiots they are, and everybody gives them a pat on the back and kiss on the ass for being so brave and being them self because that's the reaction they saw on TV or in that extra special video on Jewbook that restored their faith in humanity

The real question is, how do we get large quantities of resources to study these kinds of topics and to spread the information. Yeah, we know about 9/11 and JFK and the lies and the wars and the monetary system being a fraud, but, how do we gain real power in this situation as an internet mob, or as individuals? The information and the knowledge already exists, but how do we get it to go in to public consciousness... I mean, how easy would it be to have an organization of, let's say 100 people, actively studying this stuff, and spreading this information in the most efficient way possible, forcing the cultural conversation and the society to change... Just thinking out loud, but maybe someone has good ideas.

I'm pretty in touch but I don't know why Kim K. would be targeted by IsIS...unless she was also killed or ransomed. what is the value of a kidnapping then release?

Would appreciate elaboration.

[The image is a candid photograph of a man standing in an indoor setting. The man is wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt and khaki pants. He has a beard and is looking down at his phone. In the background, there is another person who appears to be standing and looking in the direction of the first man. The room has a concrete floor and a corrugated metal ceiling with exposed ductwork. There are cardboard boxes stacked against the wall, and the walls are covered with various types of cardboard boxes. The lighting in the room is dim, and the overall atmosphere suggests a casual, possibly industrial or storage-related environment. There are no visible texts or distinctive markings that provide additional context about the location or purpose of the room.]

I encourage you all to read Stephen Coughlin's book Catastrophic Failure. It is the first text on Islam. It explains ijtihad and how the Islamic world is really a chaotic meta-national unity ruled by accredited mainstream theologians who justify terrorism. It explains Dawa and infiltration by the Brotherhood. It explains everything very clearly and slowly with abundant sourcing. It really is a game-changing book.

one last question from me. how influential is wahabbism? if I look at all this as a search and grasp for power, it's easy to frame everything inside. the Saudis are major players, no? they finance and cooperate with the Clintons and probably the Bushes, but it's just money and power for them while the Saudis keep them in dominion. brainstorming sorry.

I've covered this is past Knowledge Bombs, they are such common cover up words for terrorist attacks.

Don't forget "fireworks".

The MSM thinks the public is so dumb that they would not start questioning the frequency,timing & locations.

If the Oklahoma city bombing & the first bombing on the WTC happened, the MSM would say that they were Gas Leaks or Transformer explosions.

Can we get some sort of list of things happening over the past year or two, what their official explanations are and what compelling evidence calls that into question? The skeptic in me wants to say that things like that happen all the time and only appear more frequent these days that we can read news from anywhere. I'm confused on this point. The French supposed to be demolishing the camp, and the Brits are building a barrier. Is the question where will they go once they are forced to leave?

Are they covering up the terrorism because they know their countries can only handle so much of it before something happens?

But yeah, I suppose it's plausible that a snackbar blew up a crowded bar and super-secret shadowy government agencies went round immediately afterwards, in and out of the hospital rooms, and told all the survivors and their friends not to post about it as well as deleting any mention they made of it on social media.

Or it could just have been a gas explosion.

The resulting 'religious revolution' would be such that possibly most religions in and of themselves would be banned and / or merge, making a watered down 'believers' vs 'nonbelievers' or 'savages', as they would probably call them.

Nuking mecca will anger literally a billion muslims worldwide. Suddenly "Jihad" won't be considered radical, as their very way of life will be under attack. Moderates will swing to the radical position, and we'll have Crusader war: 21st century edition.

It doesn't matter who sets it off. Christians and Jews would get blamed, and likely fight to the death since both sides believe they're protecting their traditional way of life.

I greatly dislike this potential narrative.

So when and how is this pressure applied immediately after a major terrorist incident?

>You said the reason no-one is mentioning it's a terrorist attack was because of:

Your argument rests on the assumption that the 70 survivors all knew the cause of the explosion and weren't simply caught in the crossfire unawares.

If a bomb goes off near you unexpectedly and you survive, you will most likely will not learn the nature of who placed said bomb until after the explosion from investigative authorities. If these authorities tell you that the explosion was caused by a gas leak, how would you know for sure they were lying? More likely your brain would construct a memory of smelling gas to fill in the blanks caused by the intense trauma of surviving an explosion.

This significantly reduces the amount of people who need to keep this secret down from about seventy civilians to a small internal investigative team.

The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the 'agentur' of the 'Illuminati' between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion. We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time.

This whole london bridge shit sounds off as well.
If you know anything about engineering or explosives youd know you would literally need a truck full, or thermal/shaped charges expertly placed in multiple key points along the superstructure. Even then there is no guarantee of full collapse depending on the layout of rebar.

Also, a bridge from a spectacle standpoint is kinda dumb, literally go for an embassy, landmark (London Eye/Big Ben), houses of parliament, whitehall, MI6 building, thames house, etc etc. All of those would have a greater media impact.

>Exactly.

Not only that, but witnesses are always questioned by the authorities about what they know/saw before they can speak to the media, and if these witnesses report evidence of terrorist activity they can be persuaded by any number of means to keep their story to themselves or even change it. Suggestion and manipulation is used by these authorities effectively to "convince" survivors that what they say they saw is not actually what they saw, that their story is a strange "outlier". They can be fed misinformation ("several witnesses told us about smelling gas, did you also smell the gas?") to skew their memory and persuade them into agreement with social pressures. And this isn't even getting into the more sinister tactics such as harassment, gang-stalking, intimidation, or coercion, which can and have been used effectively against witnesses in the past (See JFK Dallas witnesses).

People who suggest that the government could not manipulate and control the flow of information by presenting false narratives have no historical basis for their argument. Their argument exists in an altruistic vacuum incongruous to sociological trends, human natures, and cycles of civilization that have been demonstrated all the way back to antiquity.

>OWO = Globalism
>Get it right

The New World Order is a term that has been employed by Bush senior, Bush Junior, Kissinger, Rockefeller, Quigley, and every pope in the last seventy years. It does not stop there. The terminology NWO is used explicitly by proponents of globalism like the Rothschilds et al.

If you are claiming your NWO is different from there NWO, and that their NWO is actually the OWO, you have created much confusion by using the same terminology.

Rothschild Perspective:

>OWO—Nations
>NWO—Globalism
Your perspective:
>OWO—Globalism
>NWO—Nations?

By choosing to redefine a commonly understood term such as the New World Order, with all its globalist and biblical connotations, you make yourself look as a deceiver, who is attempting to confuse. These redefinitions of old terms usually create more doublethink than anything. This all could have been avoided if you had chosen for your New Order and different, less alarmist name.

The "OWO" has been trying to rebrand itself as a "NWO", when a "NWO" by the OWO would be the reality the OWO was planning on for a long time.

The OWO is becoming obsolete over time due to age catching up and tech progressing past them.

The NWO is completely separate and different the the OWO.

Then we have Soros which is pissing off both groups overtime.

If it is something welcome and not to fear, you should have no problem telling me the nature of your new world order with some specificity.

[The image is a meme featuring a dog peeking out from a hole in a door. The dog has a light brown coat and is looking directly at the camera with its mouth slightly open. The door is white and has a hinge visible on the left side. The text overlay on the image reads "Excuse me what the fuck" in a bold, capitalized font. The style of the image is humorous and seems to be a playful take on a typical situation where a dog might be trying to get out of a house or apartment.]

If Trump had not called out the NYC dumpster bomb as a bombing, would it have been called a gas leak? If so, why wasn't it?

Is this why the trash can pipe bomb story got brushed under the rug real quick?

How much of this information is Trump aware of?

CTR is involved in many "kiddie" related matters. Many workers and management are into the "kiddie" stuff.

They have also been trying to actively sabotage 4chan and get it shut down over things like that(Planting threads, topics etc etc).

CTR = Children Touching Radicals.

Multiple sting operations from various "groups" are happening in CTR due to this and also many other things CTR has been upto.

If you are working for CTR and are reading this, I suggest you get some legal advice and understand how much even being investigated about "kiddie" stuff is going to effect your life and your families lives and consider a different line of work.

Post Debate Plot by David Brock owner of Media Matters

Max Insider

Correct the Record is a Hillary-campaign super-pac that is dedicated to "fighting the lies" on the Internet. What it is, is a battalion of paid trolls whose job it is to disrupt, demoralize, and defame any Trump supporters and message boards. They communicate using a secure messaging software called "slack" pictured above.

We were able to get some monitoring software onto a junior analyst's laptop to take a look inside the slack-channel where they were doing work. What we found was startling. In the fall-out from last night's debate, they are beginning a new campaign of targeted harassment (or worse) against the "ring leaders" of the decentralized online Trump movement.

Without a traditional campaign infrastructure to target, it appears they have been reduced to going after the "most influential voices" in the online debate. What exactly this means, we're not sure (the comment at the end of the conversation wasn't good though). Below are the screen shots and the full transcript of today's conversation.

Do you think the powers that be are juat going to hand the key to our shackles that easily? Why hasnt trump said a word of the truth? That truth being there is a massive blackmail network that uses child rape as a key tennnant of its mechanism. Look into dutroux, franklin scandle. Look into trump rape accusations and jeffery epstien. Yes in the real of all possiblity he is not involved however when the conspiracy runs that deep then how can he be trusted. He surely knows at the least and says nothing. There has been a massive campaign to allign anonymous image boards (last free speech) with trump. They knew pol could be rallied as usefull idiots. He is one of them...they all are. You dont get to that level otherwise. And if wrong then i am wrong but the implications of being right are staggering an needs to be looked into. The uk has succefully silenced all the pedo leaks. I was looked into by these people for my work in digging. Its freemasons , jewish ect that run these networks. A ukranian qt infiltrated my life and her stepdad was a lawyer and she also was directly connected to powwrful railroad owners and george soros . I am working on exposing something huge. I collected info the whole time and will be making a thread soon. It sucks but the truth is that these people have control and they lead the opposition. Anyone can accuse anyone of anything, and gee I can't imagine why ANYONE would try to accuse Trump of such things all of a fucking sudden instead of when it supposedly fucking happened. What are statute of limitations? What is character assassination? As far as epstein goes, the only thing I've found is that Trump doesn't have a favorable opinion or relationship with the guy, despite what he says publicly to put on a cordial face, his actions on the ground tell the opposite tale.

The trump shit in pol has been contrived by the very people we fight against. Do you think all the pepe shit he posted was an accident. They are comjng for the only true thinktank in the world. What's the realistic solution then? The normie drones are asleep and comfortable in their beliefs of what's real and what's not, in all the varying degrees that they have them. Those who are aware are sparse and unconsolidated and unconsolidatable and don't have any power besides shitposting, memeing, and laughing manning. Short of divine or extra terrestrial intervention, who's going to be able to stop them? What's to stop the same cancer from springing up in the order that arises out of the wreckage?

Nothing you claim has virtually any evidence to back it up and is either 1) something that the rest of us have already assumed making your claims nothing but redundant or 2) is so completely retarded (like the "migrant crisis is purposeful not because globalists want to kill the white race but because they need more niggers to fu k their wives" thing) and indicates that you're some idiot kid who has no idea that the rest of us are capable of critically thinking enough not to worship your vague and idiotic 'prophecies'.

Ex:

He appears to be in a professional setting, possibly a news interview or a broadcast. The background is a gradient of blue and red, with a blurred effect that suggests motion. The graphic design overlay is a red and white banner with the text "CONFRONTING EVIL" in bold white letters at the top. Below the text, there is a smaller text that reads "A far-left website known as '4chan' is providing child pornography to internet pedophiles." The text is in white, contrasting with the red background of the banner. The overall style of the image suggests it is a news segment or a segment from a television show or broadcast, with the man possibly being a news anchor or a commentator. The use of the word "CONFRONTING EVIL" and the mention of "4chan" indicates a focus on addressing issues related to child pornography and the internet. The design elements, such as the bold text and the contrasting colors, are meant to grab attention and convey urgency or seriousness.]

A lot of us in here believe whatever he tells us and we don't even have to know what his purposes really are because he told us that we are special autists that deserve the attention of a high level insider.

The monkey's eyes are open, and it has a wide smile on its face. The monkey's mouth is open, and it is holding the watermelon slice with its teeth. Is Soros really at the root of all the SJW/PC/Feminist culture? If so, how does he have so much influence in the US Academic system which seems to be the main driving force of it all?

Do you know anything about Chinese Globalist groups working to undermine the West /working with Soros?

Is there any merit to the "white genocide" conspiracy in world governments, or is it just a scare tactic/side effect to the destabilization of the West?

BOARD PANDERING, WE ALREADY KNOW THIS FAGGOT
> The Recent FBI investigation shows how Hillary is willing to sink Obama's legacy faster then his sloppyness lately.
"I AM A HIGH LEVEL INSIDER BUT I CAN'T SPELL SLOPPINESS" ALSO A NON SEQUITUR AND BOARD PANDERING/COMMON KNOWLEDGE
> EU leadership is involved in a cuckold sex club, Canada's PM is also in on it. They cut a deal with Soros so accept the "refugees" because they wanted fresh meat.
if this isn't the most obvious fucking trolling i don't know what is
> The DNC had local ISIS members in it. They were planning on doing a attack of some type and then having the blame be put on Bernie supporters.(This was a back up plan if the Bernie people didn't peacefully leave.(aka forced out))

All because hes the moderator & the Debates have been favoring Clinton.
